"A Few Sighs from Hell, or the Groans of a Damned Soule;" being an exposition of those words in the sixteenth of Luke concerning the Rich man and the Boggar, wherein is discovered the lamentable state of the damned, their cries, their desires in their distresses, with the determination of God upon them. A good warning word to sinners, both old and young, to take into consideration betimes lest they come into the same place of torment. Also a brief discourse touching the profitableness of the Holy Scriptures by that poor servant of Jesus Christ, John Bunyan.

An Exposition continued upon the 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, and 29 Chapters of EZEKIEL; with many useful observations thereupon. Delivered at several Lectures in London by William Greenhill. Sold by Lancelot Chapman, at the Crown in Popes Head Alley, and Henry Morlock, at the Phoenix in Pauls Churchyard, near the little north door.
