

with feelings of much affection, and shall not cease to remember them and their families at a throne of grace.

And from the Congregation of Emiskillen. "That this meeting is of opinion that this Congregation is unable separately to support a minister, and if the Presbytery should deem it expedient to remove Mr. Smith from us, it would be highly injurious to the congregation and the cause of Christ in this locality. Therefore we humbly pray that the Presbytery will not grant the petition of the Bowmanville congregation."

The Presbytery, after hearing parties, agreed that meantime these resolutions should lie on the table.

Mr. Millican gave a verbal report of his labors at Bethesda Church, and Alnwick which was satisfactory.

Mr. Isaac requested that the Lord's Supper be dispensed at Bethesda Church, Mr. McKenzie, was appointed to this duty.

Mr. McDonald, who had been brought up a Roman Catholic, gave an account of the way that he had been led to change his views, and of his desire to enter Knox's College to study for the ministry of this Church. Messrs. J. W. Smith, McLeod, McKenzie, and Duncan, were appointed a committee to examine Messrs. Millican and McDonald.—Mr. Smith Convener.

Mr. Andrews stated a reference from the Session of Keene. It was agreed to hold a Presbyterial visitation at Keene, on the last Tuesday of September. The Presbytery also to meet at Keene on that day for the discharge of business.

This Institution is intended to serve as a reliable intermediary between borrower and lender, furnishing to the borrower of real estate an easy mode of redeeming his property, while to the investor it insures security, punctuality and large ultimate profit, without his being subject to the anxiety and annoyance which sometimes attend loan transactions between individuals. It is, therefore, especially suitable as an accumulating investment to Clergymen, School and other Teachers, Farmers, Clerks, Mechanics and others who can spare large or small sums for future purpose.

The stock books are still open to subscribers without the payment of arrears or premium on shares, a new class of subscribers being formed every month. Shares mature in six years certain, and are paid up by Monthly, Yearly, or other Periodical Installments, or by a single payment of $256, a considerable discount being granted by paying in advance. Monthly payment $4.20 per share, and proportionally for half or quarter shares.

Shareholders can withdraw, if they desire, at any time before the expiration of six years, with compound interest on the amount paid in.
