Sparkles.

MANY English clergymen treat their curates with scant courtesy. "Good-morning, Mr. H.," said a curate recently to his rector, "I hope you are better." "Thank you," was the reply, "I am quite well; but I do not expect my curate to address me until I first speak to him." But the curates are not always without fault either. A number of curates were recently met together, and got to discussing a popular preacher. "How I should like to be one of his curates," remarked one of the clergymen, "and preach him down."

RICH PLUM PUDDING.—This delicious confection is nicely calculated to produce dyspepsia, heartburn, biliary troubles and headache. Burdock Blood Bitters is equally well calculated to cure these troubles and has proved its power in hundreds of cases. B. B. B. regulates and purifies the entire system.

It does indeed.—Shingiss; I see by the newspapers that the Ameer of Afghanistan has sent to Queen Victoria a letter of condolence on the death of the Duke of Clarence, the letter being enclosed in a box of pure gold weighing a pound. Larimer: What a magnificent gift that was! Shingiss: O, no. It was Ameer trifle. Larimer: Still it shows what he Khando.

A FAMILY FRIEND.—Sirs, I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in my family for years and can highly recommend it for summer complaint, diarrhoea, cramps, etc.—Mrs. George West, Huntsville, Ont.

TEACHER: Hans, name three beasts of prey. Hans: Two lions and a tiger.

"PAPA, when a man takes up the law it means he starts in being a lawyer, doesn't it?" "Yes." "And when he's a judge and lays down the law is that when he quits?" "But his father told him it was time he was in bed long ago."

CHANGE IS WELCOME.—Gentlemen, for twenty years I suffered from Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Poor Appetite, etc., and received no benefit from the many medicines I tried, but after taking five bottles of B. B. B. I can eat heartily of any food and am strong and smart. It is a grand medicine and has made a wonderful change in my health.—Mrs. W. H. LEE, Harley, Ont.

AN Accommodating Boy.—Old Lady (sharply to boy in drug store): I've been waiting for some time to be waited on, boy. Boy (meekly): Yes'm; wot kin I do fer you? Old Lady: I want a two-cent stamp. Boy (anxious to please): Yes'm. Will you have it licked?

ALICE's grandpapa had set her bantam hen on eleven cunning white eggs, and Alice was greatly interested in watching the result. One day she ran into the house calling excitedly, "Mamma, mamma, two chickens have bloomed!"

THE Great British North America cat nowadays is to buy a bottle of B.B.B., and cure yourself of dyspepsia, constipation, headache, liver complaint or bad blood, and it is an act that always attains the desired result.

GOVERNOR TAYLOR, of Tennessee, recently told of a coloured clergyman who preached a sermon on the text: "And the multitudes came to Him and He healed them of divers diseases." Said he: "My dying congregation, this is a terrible text. Disease is in the world. The smallpox slays its hundreds, the cholera its thousands, and the yellow fever its tens of thousands, but, in the language of the text, if you take the divers you are gone. These earthly doctors can cure the smallpox, cholera and yellow fever, if they get there in time, but nobody but the good Lord can cure the divers."

GENTLEMEN,—I have used Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for bowel complaint and can say there is no other remedy as good.—MRS. JAMES DENNISON, Lake Dora, Ont.

RIDING along our country highways one sees many signs placed in conspicuous places forbidding trespassing. Some of the signs are in the strongest language, while others are hard to understand. On one north-west of the city of Beverly, Mass., is found the following: Any person kitched on these grounds, or cows, or wimin will be libal two fine itself in a skrape."

A SICK LIVER

is the cause of most of the depressing, painful and unpleasant sensations and sufferings with which we are afflicted; and these sufferings will continue so long as the Liver is allowed to remain in this sick or sluggish condition.

To stimulate the Liver and other digestive organs to a normal condition and healthy activity, there is no better medicine than
