SAVE THE CHILDREN FROM RUM.

We can seldom
-- save the drunkard
-- or stop the moderate drinker. But we can pledge the children and follow up the pledge with such teachings that they will never cont. remain in true to pledge--while do let the number of Sunday-schools in the church to show that ninety per cent. of all the work is not opposed, we are well on our way to the church from whom we have their child on j in a band of Hope. No one can cry "oppression" or "your after" while it rests on older people with even a better force than dir of work, for the books, papers, etc. go into the homes, and are read by the parents--the less too are talked over, and every one comes out to the band concerts there to hear their own little ones sing and talk temperance.
