

ness of the record. But I was suddenly startled into a more honest mood by an audible sigh—from the stranger (who had paused in the hall), and by a sudden darkness falling upon me by which the record became at once obscured and nearly illegible. I suddenly cried out, "Lord, save me!" and knelt down at my chair, with the paper in my hand and my eyes fixed upon it. At once it became a mirror, and I saw my heart reflected in it. The record was true! I saw it, I felt it, I confessed it, I deplored it, and I besought God to save me from myself with many tears; and, at length, with a loud and irrepressible cry of anguish, I awoke.

That day was the crisis of my history; and if there shall prove to have been, in later years, some depth and earnestness in my convictions, and some searching and saving pungency in my words, I doubt not eternity will show their connection with the visit of this Searcher of hearts, at whose coming I was weighed in the balance and found wanting.

FELLOW WORKER HOW IS IT WITH YOU?

- And God is able to make all grace abound towards you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.— 2 Cor. ix, 8.

SOW BESIDE ALL WATERS.

A tract was given with each railroad ticket, issued by an agent at one of our principal stations during several years. He was an earnest Christian man, anxious to use every opportunity to spread the knowledge of his Master. Every year he expended fifty dollars in tracts, which he distributed, and after continuing the practice for five years, had the happiness of counting twenty-two letters he had received during that period, from persons who had been converted by the blessing of God on the tracts he had given them with their tickets.—Baltimore Bulletin.
