

ally altered and so largely rewritten that it is practically new. The eminent author has condensed his most comprehensive experience into a form adapted particularly to the needs of the student and practitioner, but the work will none the less be a standard reference book for the surgeon and the student of special subjects, who will find the abundant bibliography of indispensable value. It is believed that in the elimination of historical matters, and in the substitution of settled opinions for the previous discussions of divergent views, the directness and applicability of the knowledge presented will increase the favor with which the original work was received. The illustrations have been subjected to equally thorough revision and embrace many new pictures, notably a rich and instructive series of X-ray full-page plates.

A Primer of Psychology and Mental Disease, for use in Training-schools for Attendants and Nurses and in Medical Classes. By C. B. BURR, M.D., Medical Director of Oak Grove Hospital for Nervous and Mental Diseases, Flint, Mich.; formerly Medical Superintendent of the Eastern Michigan Asylum; member of the American Medico-Psychological Association, etc. Second edition thoroughly revised. $5\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ inches. Pages ix-116. Extra cloth, \$1.00 net. The F. A. Davis Co., publishers, 1914-16 Cherry St., Philadelphia; 117 W. Forty-second St., New York City; 9 Lakeside Building, 218-220 S. Clarke St., Chicago, Ill. For sale in Great Britain by Sampson Low, Marston & Co., St. Dunstan's House, Fleet St., London, E.C.

This little work is, as it professes to be, merely a primer, but it is so carefully and practically written that it might have more pretentious claims. It will be found very valuable for the class to which it appeals.

Manual of Skin Diseases. With Special Reference to Diagnosis and Treatment. For the use of students and general practitioners. By W. A. HARDAWAY, M.D., Professor of Diseases of the Skin in the Missouri Medical College, St. Louis. Second edition, entirely rewritten and much enlarged. In one handsome 12mo. volume of 560 pages, with 40 engravings and 2 colored plates. Cloth, $2.25, net. Lea Brothers & Co., publishers, Philadelphia and New York.

Professor Hardaway's Manual in its first edition won the esteem of critical specialists as being a most admirable epitome of
