The new French-Canadian Bank will open its doors for business on June 10th. The English name will be the International Bank.

One of the biggest Purcupine deals was closed recently, when the Rea Mines or Consolidated Gold Fields of South Africa, consisting of 320 acres in the heart of Tisdale Township, and adjoining Ridgley Porcupine Mining Company, and the Armstrong-Booth Syndicate holdings, was taken over by the Bewick-Moreing people of London, England.
