

- Since 1982, CIDA's Industrial Co-operation (INC) program has provided more than $25 million to support Canadian businesses assisting in Thai private-sector development. Funds have been mainly for viability, starter and preliminary studies in industry, energy, transportation, agriculture and communications. CIDA-INC seed money has led to many successful joint ventures that have produced commercial benefits for both Canadian and Thai firms.