

Where to Find Information or Assistance

Access within the building is restricted. If you have an appointment in one of the four towers, consult the commissionaires at the main reception desk.

For information concerning international trade or foreign policy, visit the InfoCentre in the northeast corner of the main floor. Information can also be obtained by phone at 1-800-267-8376 or by fax at 1-613-996-9709.

If you would like information on potential dangers in countries you intend to visit, call 1-800-267-6788 or visit the Client Services Centre at the east side of the Main Lobby.

More detailed information on the history of the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, or on the history of Canada's relations with other countries can be found in two historical series produced by the Department. Documents on Canadian External Relations and Canada's Department of External Affairs (volumes I and II) are available in the Léger Library.
