

2. The visas that are necessary for the persons referred to in paragraph 1, shall be issued by the Government free of charge and as speedily as possible.
3. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall also apply, where applicable, to their spouses and relatives dependent on them.
4. Subject to the relevant provisions of this Agreement, the Government shall retain complete control and full power over the entry of persons or property into its territory and over the conditions on which persons may remain or reside therein.

ARTICLE IX

PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES OF REPRESENTATIVES OF MEMBER STATES

Representatives of Member States of the principal and subsidiary bodies of the Organization and at meetings convened by the Organization or by the Institute on behalf of the Organization shall, while exercising their functions and during their journeys to and from the place of meeting, enjoy the privileges and immunities set out in Article IV of the Convention.

ARTICLE X

PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES OF OFFICIALS

1. Officials of the Organisation shall, in Canada:
 - (a) be immune from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts performed by them in their official capacity;
 - (b) be exempt from taxation on the salaries and emoluments paid to them by the Organisation it being noted that the exemption shall be granted to Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada as defined by the relevant Canadian legislation as set out in the Article XII below;
 - (c) be immune, together with their spouses and relatives dependent on them, from immigration restrictions and alien registration;
 - (d) be immune from national service obligations;
 - (e) be given, together with their spouses and relatives dependent on them, the same repatriation facilities in time of international crises as diplomatic envoys;
 - (f) be accorded the same privileges in respect of exchange facilities as are accorded to the officials of comparable ranks forming part of diplomatic missions to the Government; and