

In general Canada was both praised and criticized in the Philippine online English press. Notwithstanding one harsh critique of Canada's cautionary travel advisory of two major cities in the Philippines, the perception of Canada is generally positive in the Filipino newspapers covered in this study.