17. Upon the appearing of any case that the circumstances by reference to which any award of pension was made no longer exist or that any condition of such award is unfulfilled, the Commission shall, after giving notice to the attention of the Commission, and the Commission, upon any such case being brought to its attention by the Department or otherwise shall, after making any necessary inquiry either give such direction as the circumstances require for the appointment, suspension or cancellation of the pension and as to the liability of any over-payment which may have been made, or if the direction which should be given is in doubt and the public interest will not suffer by delay, shall refer the case to the chief pension advocate and the chief pension controller in order that it may further be considered by the Pension Tribunal or the Pension Appeal Board.

18. All appeals referred to in the Pension Appeal Board and remaining undetermined at the date of the coming into force of this Act shall be deemed to have been referred to the Pension Tribunal for hearing by the Pension Tribunal and shall be deemed to have been so referred.

19. Section 27 of the said Act as amended by section thirty-two of chapter thirty-eight of the Statute of 1932, is re-numbered as section twenty-five.

20. The Act shall come into force on the first day of October, 1933, provided that any appointment, removal or re-appointment to be made under the Act may be made at any time after the first day of September, 1933 and any salary or other payment to which any person so appointed may be entitled shall be payable from the date of his appointment.
