HISTORIC SITES AND MONUMENTS BOARD OF CANADA

St Thomas, June 11, 1930

My Dear General

Among the felicitations I have received in connection with the honour recently conferred upon me by my University, there is assuredly none that I prize more than that which came to me this morning from you. I wish to thank you for the kind expressions in your letter, and the kind thought which prompted you to send it, and which greatly enhances the value of the honour I have received, highly as I appreciate it in itself.

With very best wishes for your continued and improved health and strength

Yours sincerely
James D. Wolfe
