ONTARIO

My dear Mr. Atkin:

I have stayed over here for the week end on my way back to Toronto and now when "The tumult and the shouting dies, The Captains and the Kings depart" I wish to congratulate you on your great achievement and to thank you for the honour and the hospitality shown to me personally. It was a great occasion observed with both dignity and splendour.
We'll go forward with a new impetus.
It used to be said of both McGill and Toronto that they were too deep from the realities of the daily work of life - It seemed to me that I caught a new note in McGill which negates this idea. Tal-carr rebuked me when I said that we had hardly an esprit de corps equal to that which our graduates were showing
