

April
Thirteenth
1922.

Captain Stanley Wharton,
220 University Street,
Montreal.

My dear Wharton:-

Let me acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 8th instant and also of the other letters which you sent to me.

I was particularly glad to get the photos of Col. Gardiner, who I always regarded as one of the best soldiers and comrades serving in the Canadian Corps. I did not answer your other letters largely because I had no good news for you. In response to my letters regarding the Trade Commissionership, I was told that it was not the present intention of the Government to increase the number. I could not quarrel with them over their decision, so there didn't seem to be anything further that I could do.

I would be very glad to have you here as a Purchasing Agent if there was a vacancy, but the man who holds the position now is an old and tried servant of the University and I am quite sure you would not suggest that he should be dismissed. I shall always be glad, Wharton, to put in a word for you if you think it would be of any use at any time you are applying for a position.

I am sincerely sorry that you have not before this secured congenial employment in Montreal and I hope that the time is not far distant when you will be satisfactorily placed. Whatever happens I know you will always keep up your courage and face the situation with a smile.

Yours faithfully,