

II
OFFICE OF THE MINISTER
OTTAWA

26th June, 1925.

My dear Sir Arthur:-

I have yours of the 24th of June, and, supplementing a conversation which I had with Colonel Bovey, just as soon as we get through with the rush of the Session, I shall confer with the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who has the most to do with Radio matters, in connection with the Government, and will give your request every possible consideration.

Very glad that you came through your operation all right, and trust you are quite yourself again.

With very kindest regards, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Erna Druel
