

soners. The Grand Battery fir'd smartly against the City.

Sunday 12.

Not one Gun fir'd from the Island Battery this Day. The Grand Battery, however, and our other Batteries fir'd smartly against the City to very good Effect ; for not a Gun was return'd. We had a Sermon in the Mass-house at the Grand Battery. The Text was taken from the 27th Verse of the 9th Chapter of the Hebrews.

Monday 13.

At 3 o'Clock this Afternoon a large French Snow came round the Light-house, the Wind being East-North-East. She was oblig'd to run into the Harbour of Louisbourg. Tho' our grand Battery, and other Battery fir'd at her, yet she kept close aboard the Island Battery and the City, till she grounded against the King's-Gate. This Vessel came from France, laden with Stores for the Fishermen. This was the only Vessel that got in after we had taken possession of the Grand Battery. The City and Island Battery fir'd as fast as possible against the Grand Battery till the Snow grounded. At Night we got a large Scooner, fill'd with Combustibles ; put a small Sail on her
