

AMONG THE AMERICANS

AND

A STRANGER IN AMERICA.

---

BY GEORGE JACOB HOLYOAKE.

---

“He ties up hands
Who locks up lands:
The lands which can't be sold and bought
Bring men and States to worse than nought:
The lands which can be freely sold
Are worth a world of barren gold.”

—EBENEZER ELLIOTT.

---

CHICAGO:
BELFORD, CLARKE & CO.

1881.