Britain Driven to Drastic Measures by German Mine Laying.

BIG LINER NEARLY LOST Enemy's Vessels, Flying Neutral Flags, Have Been Busy.

(BRITISH OFFICIAL)
Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Nov. 2, 11:15 p.m.—The British North Sea has been declared a military area and merchant vessels entering it will be exposed to the gravest dangers from the mines it has been necessary to lay from the warships which are searching vigilantly by night and by day for suspicious craft.
This action has been taken as a reply to the laying of mines by the Germans in the waters of Iceland.

The secretary of the admiralty tonight made the following announcement with reference to the virtual closure of the North Sea to traffic:
"During the last week the Germans have scattered mines indiscriminately in the open sea on the main trade route from America to Liverpool via the north of Ireland.

Olympic Narrow Escape.
"Peaceful merchant ships have already been blown up with loss of life by this agency. The white Star liner Olympic escaped disaster by pure good luck, and but for warnings given by British cruisers other British and neutral merchant and passenger vessels would have been destroyed.

These mines cannot have been laid by any German ship of war. They have been laid by some merchant vessel flying a neutral flag which has come along the trade route as if for the purpose of peaceful commerce, and while robbing to the full by the immunity enjoyed by neutral merchant ships, has wantonly and recklessly endangered the lives of all who travel on the sea."

Exceptional Measures.
"In these circumstances having regarded to the great interests relating to the British navy, to the safety of peaceful commerce on the high seas and to the maintenance within the limits of international law of trade between the neutral countries, the admiralty feel it necessary to adopt exceptional measures, appropriate to the novel conditions under which this war is being fought."

The Danger Mark.
"Ships of all countries wishing to trade to and from Norway, the Baltic, Denmark and Holland, are advised to come, if inward bound, by the English Channel and the Straits of Dover.
There they will pass their destination safely so far as Great Britain is concerned, but any straying, even for a few miles, from the course thus indicated, may be followed by fatal consequences."

Safety Guaranteed.
"From this point they should turn north or south, according to their destination, keeping as near the coast as possible. The converse applies to vessels outward bound.
By a strict adherence to these routes, the commerce of all countries will be able to reach its destination safely, so far as Great Britain is concerned, but any straying, even for a few miles, from the course thus indicated, may be followed by fatal consequences."

HUGE ORDER FOR SADDLES RECEIVED FROM RUSSIA
As Many as Can Be Supplied Wanted From Canadian Manufacturers

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—In addition to the many large contracts for the British and French Governments that have lately been awarded in Canada, the government has received a large order for saddles for the Canadian Government. The order will be divided among the Canadian firms capable of doing the work.
The necessary despatch. No number of saddles is mentioned, which is taken to mean that the firm will take every saddle it is possible for Canada to manufacture immediately.

AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES CHECK INVADERS

Advance, Continues Steadily in East Prussia and Beyond Vistula.
FIERCE COMBAT ON SAN Austrians Hotly Oppose Russians, Who Repel Series of Attacks.
(RUSSIAN OFFICIAL)
Canadian Press Despatch.
PETROGRAD, Nov. 2.—The following report from the general staff was made public here tonight:
"On the front in Eastern Prussia our troops have repulsed German attacks directed against Vladislavoff, driven the enemy from the eastern edge of the Barten Forest and advanced to the north of Lake Ragorod.
"Beyond the Vistula our troops continue the offensive without being opposed. Only in the region of Opotow the Austrians attempted to resist us with considerable forces.
They were repulsed. Beyond the Opotow River the Austrians hold a fortified position.
"In Galicia, on the San River, our troops entered the Village of Nisko, where fierce fighting took place.
"On the rest of the front the situation is virtually unchanged."

PROGRESS MADE IN BELGIUM AS GERMAN OFFENSIVE FAILS TURKEY GIVEN FINAL CHANCE

EUREN FROM BANK OF YSEB
Belgians Report That Germans Have Given Up Trenches.
KAISER IS COMING SOON Main Attack Expected Between Ypres and River Lys.
(BELGIAN OFFICIAL)
Canadian Press Despatch.
HAVRE, via London, Nov. 2, 11:30 p.m.—The following Belgian official report was issued at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon:
"On the Yser front the enemy has shown no activity. Their bombardment has been feeble. Several shells apparently intended for the railway station struck the town of Furness.
"German troops appear largely to have withdrawn to the bank of the Yser. Trenches situated some 200 or 300 yards from our lines have been found empty. This morning a strong column marched from Hannuwaere towards St. Pierre Capelle, where large forces already are assembled.
Flooding of the country proceeds, but the bridges and outposts carried across the Yser by the allies are still in position.
"The prisoners from the third German army corps report that mixed units of every direction make up the German line. The Russian East Prussian complain of the difficulty of fighting in the marshy land and of the losses inflicted on them by the artillery of the allies, especially by the British naval guns. Between Dixmude and Bixchoote the allies' offensive is progressing. Various German reserve forces are concentrated along a line thru Enneluvel, Hellebeke and Dulemo. Their objective is Ypres.
"The arrival of the German emperor, which, it is announced, is expected shortly in South Flanders, shows that the principal effort of the enemy is being directed between Ypres and the Kaiser's Flanders.
"The allied troops yesterday and today broke the efforts of their assailants.
"Russians have cut off the German line of retreat towards Posen.
The enemy is falling back towards the southwest and the left wing of his rear guard is now at Lode. Many prisoners, much material and an aviation park have been captured."

THREE MORE VESSELS
SEIZED BY KARLSRUHE Passengers and Crew of British Steamers Landed in Brazil.
Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Nov. 2, 5:48 p.m.—A despatch to Lloyd's shipping agency from Para, Brazil, says that the German steamer Ansunon has landed there the passengers and crews of the British steamers Vanduyck, Hurstale and Glanto, which were captured by the German cruiser Karlsruhe in lat-tude 1 south, longitude 40 west.

Allies Believed To Have Occupied Leffinghe, Which Means That Germans Suffered a Bad Defeat—All Attacks Between Nieupoort and Dixmude Have Failed and Allies Have Made Progress—Britain Proclaims Martial Law in Egypt, and Gives Turkey a Last Chance To Explain Her Action.
Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—An unconfirmed news agency despatch from Constantinople says that the grand vizier has tendered an apology for recent events in the Black Sea. To whom this apology was made is unknown. The British and Russian ambassadors are said to have left the city last night for Salonica, and the French diplomatic representative has arranged to make his departure today. It is also probable that as to whether such an apology has been made to Russia alone or to France and her allies. If the peace party in the Turkish ministry has prevailed it means that Turkey can only recede from her perilous position by complying with all of the articles in the ultimatum of the triple entente, delivered a few days ago. The chief points involved are the disarmament of the cruisers Goeben and Breslau, "bought" from Germany, and the immediate discharge of all German officers in the Ottoman army and navy.
TURKISH STEAMERS SUNK.
Simultaneously with the report of an apology by the sultan comes a despatch from Athens, which says that the Turkish gunboat Dub-kretis and the Turkish armed steamer Kinalinda have been sunk in the Gulf of Technos.
That the vessels have been lost is indicated by conflicting statements as to the means by which they were sunk. It is known that the Franco-British fleet entered the Gulf of Technos this morning, and one message says that the allied warships caught up with and destroyed the Turkish craft. Another report from Ottoman sources declares that the commanders of the vessels blew them up when the allied fleet appeared on the horizon.
That the cruiser Goeben has been driven off from the attempted bombardment of Sebastopol is the information contained in a cablegram from that famous fortress, at whose gates nearly every nation of Europe has hammered with small success. This message says that the guns of the Constantinowka battery compelled the Goeben to retire. Shortly afterwards a wireless was intercepted from the big battle cruiser, saying: "Damaged; will return to Constantinople for repairs."
GIVEN HIS PASSPORTS.
The Turkish ambassador here, Tewfik Pacha, was given his pas-ports today, and the same applies to the sultan's diplomatic agent at Petrograd. Similar action was expected at Bordeaux.
Out of a mass of disconnected reports emerges the fact that Turkish gunboats have moved from the Red Sea into the Gulf of Suez, and that Turkish soldiers have already started a formidable raid into Egypt from Sinai. Their objective is plainly the Suez Canal. British forces are well prepared to halt this raid, and both French and British warships command every point on the Mediterranean from which the 300,000 Turkish troops mobilized on the Syrian coast can be transported to the Sinai Peninsula.
400,000 OTTOMANS CONCENTRATED.
It is reliably reported that 400,000 Ottomans are concentrated at a point near the Caucasus for a quick blow at Russia. But the czar has not been caught unawares, and a force estimated variously at from 500,000 to 1,000,000 men is within a few days' march of all strategical points by which the Turks might enter. In addition, there is no harder soldier in the world than the natives of the Caucasus, who have fought the Turk for centuries. It is also interesting to note that of the 13,000,000 or 14,000,000 Mohammedan subjects of the "Little White Father" in the Caucasian zone, practically every one is expected to remain loyal. German and Austrian efforts to spread a "holy war" propaganda have failed here, as they did in India. The situation is thoroughly comforting from all angles as concerns the likelihood of dangerous Turkish aggression in this quarter.
DIFFERENT IN EGYPT.
But in Egypt the situation is different. Reliable reports say that the khedive will demand an explanation from England as to her attitude toward the sultan. There are also visible signs of unrest among many of the tribes, and there can be no doubt that Constantinople will exert every energy to recover her fairest province.
ODESSA AGAIN BOMBARDED.
During Sunday Turkish warships again bombarded Odessa and also fired a number of shells into Anapa, at the extremity of the Caucasus. The Breslau and Goeben led the second naval assault on Odessa, supported by four Turkish torpedo boats.
Sultan Selim is the name of the Goeben, which is manned by Germans, the officers wearing fezes and the men still being in German uniforms.
The attack on Anapa is believed to have been in the nature of a signal to the Caucasian Mohammedans, who, it was hoped by the Germans and the war party at Constantinople, would rally to the Crescent and slay their Russian neighbors. The uprising failed to eventuate, and the Mohammedan leaders and newspapers along Russia's southern border declaim against Turkish action, swearing fealty to the czar.
NOTABLE FRENCH VICTORIES.
While war clouds hung heavy over the Balkans and the Mediterranean today, furious contests took place all along the allied front from the channel to Switzerland, with particularly notable victories to the French arms in the Vosges. With snow falling and bitter winds blowing, the armies of the republic are wrestling one position after another from the German grasp in this mountain range. Versanne de Sainte Marie is the latest fruit of victory. A late despatch says that several passes where the Germans had mounted heavy batteries were

ABOVE FIFTEEN THOUSAND MEN MORE FOR WAR

Composition of Second Canadian Expeditionary Force Announced.
TO FORM ARMY DIVISION
One of Brigades Now in England Will Be Incorporated With It.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—The second Canadian contingent will be a complete army division, and its strength will be over 15,000 men. One of the four brigades of infantry now in England will be part of the second contingent.
Advice received from the British war office today indicated what in its opinion should be the composition of the second Canadian force.
Official Statement.
The following official statement was issued by the militia department this afternoon:
"There has been received from the British Government a despatch to the effect that the army council wish the second overseas contingent to be so organized that in conjunction with one of the four brigades of Canadian infantry already in England it will form a division complete in itself as far as possible, with in addition a due proportion of army service corps units for duty on lines of communication.
Composition of Force.
"The contingent will accordingly consist of two brigades of infantry (eight battalions), a complement of artillery, engineer, cyclist, signal, and administrative units (army service corps and field ambulances) and the following units for line of communication purposes: Divisional ammunition park, field bakery, field butchery, railway supply detachment, and two depot units of supply.
Numerical Strength.
"The numerical strength of the contingent will be over 15,000 men, and the total Canadian expeditionary force, first and second contingent, will exceed 45,000, not counting the reinforc-ments which will be required to maintain it in numbers and efficiency from the time it takes part in active operations.
Reinforcements Also.
"Reinforcements are calculated at a yearly rate of 70 per cent. of the total force engaged."
The policy recently enunciated by the Canadian Government of "keeping 30,000 men under arms in Canada will make it easy to conform with the wishes of the British war office.

AUSTRO-GERMAN MOVEMENTS.

Canadian Press Despatch.
PETROGRAD, Russia, Nov. 2.— By a vote of London, 4:15 p.m.—The military correspondent of The Moscow Vremya, explaining the changing dispositions of the enemy's forces, says:
"The Austrians are moving south and southwest toward the west Galician frontier and Cracow, while the Germans, retreating from Warsaw, are falling back west and southwest toward the Silesian frontier. As the German troops from Warsaw and Novo Georgievsk follow the Germans, the Russian East Prussian corps is moving in force on the regions northwest of Warsaw, covering Warsaw from the direction of Mlawa and occupying both banks of the Vistula below Warsaw."

RUSSIA MAY MAKE TERMS.
Canadian Press Despatch.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Delayed messages from Ambassador Mergenthau at Constantinople, dated late Saturday, received here today, say the Turkish ministers of agriculture and interior, thru a neutral diplomat, asked the Russian ambassador before his departure what terms would satisfy Russia, and if an apology would be satisfactory.
The Russian ambassador replied that he had instructions to leave Constantinople, but if all the German officers were dismissed from the Turkish army and his headquarters his instructions from Petrograd, he would return.

SOUTH AFRICAN RISING VIRTUALLY SUPPRESSED

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—The backbone of the rebellion in South Africa seems to be broken. Col. Maritz's commando in the Northern Cape province has been completely defeated. Several of the raiders and most of their men have been captured. Gen. Beyers is in flight and Gen. De Wet has opened negotiations for surrender, it is said.
Fur Sacrifice at Dineen's Still Continues to Draw Crowds.
It would seem as if the people of Toronto were only properly realizing the importance of the great Fur Sale at Dineen's, 140 Yonge street, for the past week's business has been the best since the sale started.
The news of the immense savings is spreading, and the touch of cold has helped matters. Many of the greater the number of visitors and sales. Few have visited this store have gone away without buying, or returning to buy.
Two examples will bear out the extent of the price concessions: Persian Lamb Coat, trimmed with skunk, reduced from $400 to $250.
Hudson Seal Coat, a delightful model, reduced from $150 to $110. Hundreds of others await your choice.

TO PROVIDE FOR BELGIAN CONSUL

Dominion Government to Give Hon. Maurice Gooch Military Appointment at Ottawa.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—Hon. Maurice Gooch, Belgian consul to Canada, it is reported, will be gazetted to an appointment in connection with the Dominion department of militia in a few days. Mr. Gooch, it has been learned, has been a heavy sufferer from the war, most of his property at Louvain having been destroyed by the Germans and his income has been cut off with the temporary ruin of his country by the ruthless iron heel.
Mr. Gooch has been indefatigable in receiving and despatching gifts for the relief of his countrymen, but has never uttered any complaint of his predic-ment. A wife of a cabinet minister accidentally gained an inkling of his difficulty and interested herself in his case. It was learned that he is an authority on military affairs, and he has been strongly recommended to the government for an appointment. It will be of such a nature as to enable him to give part of his time to the affairs of his country.

SERVIA CLAIMS A BIG VICTORY

Enemy Sustained Heavy Losses and Retired in Disorder After Violent Bayonet Combats.
Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.
NISH (via London), Nov. 2.—A semi-official note issued here today says: "The enemy operating October 29 in the direction of Gutchevo, bombarded our positions at Eminova and Banja from seven o'clock in the morning until noon. At this hour they attacked, but were repulsed by our troops. Our counter-attack developed into violent bayonet combats, in which the enemy, sustaining heavy losses, was forced to fall back in disorder, leaving three officers and about 300 men on the field.
"The enemy delivered another attack on our positions in the evening, but was again forced to retire with heavy loss.
"Nothing of importance has occurred on the remainder of the front."

HEAVY GUNS ON BORKUM ISLAND

German Apparently Preparing Submarine Base in North Sea at Strategic Point.
Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—A Central News despatch from Amsterdam says that German 42 centimetre guns have been placed on Borkum Island, in the North Sea.
Borkum is a small island belonging to Prussia at the mouth of the Ems.
It is 60 miles southwest of Helligoland.
Borkum Island is the most southerly of a string of islands that skirt the German coast from Cuxhaven to the mouth of the Ems. These, with several islands owned by the Netherlands, constitute the Frisian group.
The strategic value of Borkum Island, which is six miles in length and two miles wide, lies in the fact that it commands the estuary of the Ems and might perhaps be used as a submarine base and also in the defense of East Friesland, the District of Frisia, which forms the northwest-ernmost corner of Hanover and of the German Empire.
German submarines are known to be operating along the southern shores of the North Sea and heavy guns placed on the German islands might be valuable in the defense of their base.
