

Emigration, for those who cannot purchase the more expensive works on that important subject.—Price 1s. with a large Map.

It is equally judicious in its arrangement and varied and interesting in its matter with the "Counsel for Emigrants," and, like it too, it will prove essentially and practically useful to those who intend to leave this country for the fertile shores of the west; comprising a great deal of sound and sensible advice from settlers who, from experience, are capable of informing their countrymen.—Aberdeen Journal.

The Work among other things embodies many useful instructions how intending emigrants ought to proceed, what is necessary for the journey, and the prospect likely to open upon them when they arrive. A careful perusal of this little pamphlet will tend to save much trouble, much money, and much disappointment.—Scotsman.

This Work affords to the intending emigrant the benefit of a large fund of experience at a wonderfully cheap rate. In short, it is every way worthy of the work to which it is a Sequel, and this is not saying little for it. We heartily recommend it to our readers.—Aberdeen Observer.

We cannot forbear alluding to the "Sequel to the Counsel for Emigrants," published by Mr. Mathison of this place, whose former publication on this subject is well known to many of our readers. The "Sequel" consists chiefly of letters from emigrants, and it furnishes a most valuable collection of evidence with regard to the estimation in which they hold their adopted country.—Aberdeen Herald.

The "Sequel" contains much valuable and interesting information in regard to Upper Canada and the United States.—Montreal Herald.

A TRAVELLING MAP of UPPER CANADA and Part of the UNITED STATES.—Price 1s.

RECOLLECTIONS of the MINISTERIAL LABOURS of the late Rev. JAMES KIDD, D. D. Professor of Oriental Languages in Marischal College and University, and Minister of Gilcomston Parish, Aberdeen. By a Member of his Congregation.—Third Edition, price 6d.

A PORTRAIT of the Rev. JAMES KIDD, D. D. Originally painted by DERBY, and engraved by THOMSON for the Imperial Mag.—Proofs on Imperial 8vo. price 1s.

It is a most admirable likeness.—Aberdeen Advertiser.

We feel confident that many of those who have profited by his valuable counsels while living will now testify their appreciation of his worth by possessing themselves of this truly excellent delineation of those well-known features, which cannot fail to bring back to them many valuable and pleasing recollections.—Aberdeen Journal.

A WORD to the ABERDEEN VOLUNTARY CHURCH ASSOCIATION and JOHN RITCHIE, D. D. Edinburgh, on behalf of the Church of Scotland. By JOHN DAVIDSON, Writer. Recommended by the Rev. James Kidd, D. D.—Second Edition, price 3d.

A FARM-WORK BOOK, Printed and Ruled on the most approved plan, for keeping an account of Farm-work and Cash transactions.

For One Year, 7s.—For Half-a-year, 4s.

ABERDEEN: Published by JOHN MATHISON, Broad Street.

London: Longman & Co.; Jones & Co.; Baldwin & Cradock; Smith, Elder, & Co.—Edinburgh: Oliver & Boyd; Wm. Blackwood & Sons; Stirling & Kenny; Waugh & Innes.—Dublin: F. W. Wakeman.—Liverpool: W. Grapel.—Glasgow: R. Griffin & Co.—Greenock: Neil & Fraser; A. McIver.—Perth: J. Dewar.—Dundee: J. Chalmers; F. Shaw.—Brechin: D. Burns.—Stonehaven: R. Chapman.—Huntly: R. Johnston.—Peterhead: G. Mudie.—Banff: J. Inlach.—Inverness: J. Smith.—Elgin: P. Macdonald.—Keith: J. Smart.—Montrose: J. Nicol.—And sold by all other Booksellers.