

III. A third plenary indulgence, once in each month. Each member is allowed to choose the day of this indulgence, provided he has repeated every day of the month, the prayers hereafter mentioned.

REMARKS.—1st. In order to secure these indulgences, it is necessary to confess, communicate, visit the Parish Church, and pray in it according to the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff.

[Confession may be made, the eve of the day on which it is desired to obtain the indulgence.]

2nd. Pope Leo XII, by a rescript of the 11th May, 1824, dispenses the sick or infirm members from visiting the Church, provided nevertheless that they accomplish, according to the best of their power, and in conformity with the advice of their confessors, the other conditions required.

IV. Besides the above, an indulgence of 100 days may be obtained at any time, when, with a contrite heart, the prayers of the Association are repeated, the prescribed alms, or other alms in favor of the Missions given, or some other work of piety or charity performed.

All these indulgences, granted by a brief of Pope Pius VII., dated 15th March, 1823, are applicable to the souls in purgatory.
