

THE GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION
COLMAN'S

PRIZE MEDAL

MUSTARD.

The Jurors of the International Exhibition (1862) awarded to J. & J. Colman the only Medal for Mustard, for its "purity and excellence of quality."

TRADE MARK,

Is on each

BULL'S HEAD,

Package.

The increased demand for J. & J. COLMAN'S Mustard has induced many imitations of their labels. The Manufacturers, therefore, call special attention to the fact that all tins and packets bear their Trade Mark, the Bull's Head, the Great Exhibition (1862) Prize Medal, and the autograph of the Firm—

J. & J. Colman

The qualities marked "Double Superfine" and "Genuine" are recommended for Family use and for Medicinal purposes, and may be obtained in all parts of Ireland, and in every town of the United Kingdom.

J. & J. COLMAN, 26, Cannon Street, London, E.C.