Trading in indemnities was resumed on the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday, the proposition to allow such transactions, having passed the council by a majority of 185.

The new rule respecting the dealing in "puts and calls" is radically different to that hitherto in force, as it puts the trading on a straight insurance basis. Only parties having an actual interest in the market will be allowed to buy indemnities, and the amount of such indemnities, and the amount of such indemnities bought must in no case exceed the amount of open contracts already assumed. Thus it will be seen that anyone can sell indemnities, but the buyer must have an insurable interest before he can purchase them.

There were few good quality cattle on sale. One dealer who wished to buy informed The World that outside of a load of light exporters that was bought by Crawford & Co. there was not more than a load of cattle that could be classed as good butchers.

Trade was good, with prices high, when quality is considered.

There was one load of light exporters, 1175 lbs. each, sold at $8.10, and one choice export bull, 1700 lbs.; sold by Dunn & Levack at $5.50 per cwt.

Butchers.

The top price quoted to The World for three choice butchers' heifers, bought by Jas. Halliday, was $5.80, and for six picked cattle, bought by Alex. Levack, $5.70.

War Secretary, Accompanied by Gen. French, Visits the Q.O.R.

LONDON, Sept. 13 .- Secretary of War Haldane, accompanied by General French, inspected the Q.O.R. at Basing- M stoke yesterday, and to-day Chaplain Llwyd placed on behalf of the regiment. a wreath on General Wolfe's tumb at enwich. The Duke of York's School has been completely refurnished.

During a lull in the manoeuvres the Leicesters organized an athletic meeting. Private Walsh beat Sergt. Crane and Private Gurney of the Leicesters, successively. Private Dent threw Pri-

Arrangements for the coronation include a larger representation of contingents of troops from Canada than on the last occasion, and probably also from Australia and South Africa. It is also felt that the rapid expandelegation of colonial premiers, who, with other officials, will naturally re-
