CUCUMBERS IN OPEN BEFORE END OF JUNE

Edwin Collis, gardener to Col. Mason, Shanty' Bay, who began to cut mbers on June 24, an extraordinearly date, explains how he obarily early date, explains now he obtained this unusual result in reply to a query from a Balmy Beacher, also an early cucumber grower. His retired for gradius peas, a tall variety, also shows not only the earliness of Shanty Bay, but the skill Mr. Collis

"In answer to my friend, Balmy Beach, my cucumbers were planted in a bed of manure with sod in the open, one Rosslin telegraph and the other white spine; also to say they were gradius, not field peas, as stated in your paper. I see that Balmy Beach pea was Nott's excelsior, which is a dwarf pea. I do not grow any of that variety. I am now picking peas of the gradus and stratagem varieties. I have ten long rows of them. Balmy Beach north and the land stony."

MRS. DANCER LANDS IN BELGIAN UNIFORM

Among recent arrivals from overseas are Captain C. J. Dancer and Mrs. Dancer, who like her husband, landed in Toronto in uniform, being the first woman, English or Canadian, to serve in the Belgian army. Mrs. Dancer, who was Miss Daisie Ward, daughter of "Dave" Ward of Ward's Island, Toronto, was married sixteen years ago, has a son of fifteen and lived in the west for some years before the war. She followed her hus-band to England and thought she herself could be useful in the Belgian army. How useful she proved as an ambulance driver is shown by the fact that she wears the Belgian Croix de Guerre and the Ordre de la Reine.

dulged in by all members of the association. All members felt that on account of the promise made by the government that a proper franchise act would be brought down in parliament in the fall, that as the act was only passed as a compromise, the old act in its entirety should have remained intact. The members feel that there are other laws which have been just as drastic as the wartime election act which have not been repealed.

ed for the annual Ward Four picnic which takes place to Queenston Heights, Wednesday, July 30. Considerable optimism was expressed and the prospects look to a bumper crowd. The premier of Ontario and all Toronto provincial members as well as the Ontario members will be on hand to address the assemblage.

TWICE BURNED OUT BY HOOLIGAN CROWD

The police are investigating the charges of James McLaughlin, 15 Elm street, that on two occasions rowdies celebrating had burned his barn and celebrating had burned his barn and wagons, causing damage of several thousand dollars. On armistice day McLaughlin's wagons were taken from the barn and burned on Yonge street. On Saturday to celebrate peace day the same gang, McLaughlin charges, burned his wagons and set fire to his stable. Owing to the large crowd with stable. Owing to the large crowd witnessing the fire the police did not deem it advisable to make arrests. Mr. Mc-Laughlin's wagons were hauled to Yonge street and burned in the centre of the road.

Are Losing Large Contracts.

According to report the metal trades employers are losing considerable trade because of their refusal will as the Letter Carriers' Union will remain loyal to the present governing body.

There are many unions which may be counted among the unknown quantitles, and in general terms it may be stated that except under extreme circumstances the large majority of the unions now comprising the Trades Council will refuse to sever connection with this body.

Plans are said to be under way for those now offered by the strike combons to the horsen accept the agreement offered by the metal trades council. This was stated yesterday by one said to be in the know. He stated that he had the information on the highest authority. Not only were the employers injuring their own trade, said this man, but they were also endangering the commerce of the country, many prospective customers in Europe having decided to transfer orders to manufacturers in the United States, thus helping in the disorganization of Canadian trade.

It is stated authoritatively that more than a thousand machinists could be given work outside of Toronto at short notice, but that many of the families affected desire to remain in Toronto at any cost. If he himself was to accept a position in the province he would in these circumstances have to pay for two homes. Montreal, July 22.—The Herald says a meeting is to be held in a few days of delegates from all parts of Quebec representing prison guards and court house guardians, to discuss the question of a strike. It is claimed that between 4,000 and 5,000 guards of various kinds are affected and that they allege the promise of higher wages made them last winter has not been fulfilled. They claim that their wages vary from $55 to $60 per month and they want a $20 increase.
