Intense Indignation in Japan Over Clause Binding Japan Not to Fortify Soya Strails.

Tokio, Stopt. 22—The number of life temperature and individuals condemning the peace treaty and ask-information and individuals condemning the peace treaty and ask-information and individuals in the peace treaty and in the peace treaty and in the peace treaty and in the peac anant with elements of humiliation and future danger to the national interests. It transpires that in spite of Premier Katsura's assurance to the contrary to the editors there exists a clause in the peace treaty by which Japan undertakes not to fortify Soya Strait. As a result intense indignation is felt among the influential classes, as this is deemed to be the greatest humiliation Japan has ever suffered. The restriction thus placed upon her territorial liberty is looked upon as being an unbearable indignity and as constituting the blackest record in the history of a country which has never experienced defeat at the hands of other nations. Not a few papers to-morrow are expected to print strongly worded editorials on the subject. Soya Strait is more generally known as Laperouse Strait. It separates Yezo from the
