ered it remarkable that all his Toronto patients thus far have been twins.

The Seedless Apple.

Spencer Seedless Apple Co. are exhibiting specimens of this wonderful apple in the building east of the directors' old dining room. The apples are preserved in liquid, but show perfectly the formation entirely without the core of the ordinary apple. The exhibit is worth an examination. Mr. Anderson, who is in charge, says that the company are offering for the first time to dispose of trees of this variety.

The seedless apple will ultimately displace all others, and the first fruit put on the market will command a fabulous price.

The apple is a winter variety, a beautiful red—a fair size and flavored similar to the Baldwin.

Picked Up at Random.

The sheep have not yet been judged, and look as if competition would be keen in all classes. Leicesters, Cotswolds, and Dorset horns are especially fine. The shepherds were putting the finishing snips on the smooth coated varieties yesterday, and the larger fleeced breeds were having their coats unravelled by patient hands. The animals panted in the heat under their heavy coats, and looked better fitted for winter than summer.

The members of the Dominion Shorthorn Association will give a dinner in the Queen's Hotel Wednesday evening to Mr. William Duthie of Aberdeen, Scotland, who is the largest breeder of shorthorns in Great Britain and is judging at the exhibition.

The art gallery appears, next to the Band of the 2nd Life Guards, to be the greatest attraction in the fair. All day long it is thronged with visitors, who pour thru the salons in a double stream. The fine canvas, "October in Kent Lowlands," by A. M. Fleming, Chatham, was sold yesterday to a Canadian purchaser for $200.

No one has yet counted up the different industries illustrated in the process building, but everyone is surprised at the variety. The knitting machinery turns out socks and underclothing. Nearby a heavy lathe is at work on steel turning. Shoe making by factory processes is not far away. Another machine shows a bottle-topping process. Glass cutting is a sparkling business across the way from the carpet and rug weaving machinery. Baking and bakers' machinery is shown along with candy manufacture, and the production of breakfast food. Printing, embossing and envelope-making are grouped together.

The membesr of the Dominion Shorthorn Association will entertain William Duthie of Aberdeen, Scotland, to dinner in the Queen's Hotel on Wednesday evening. Mr. Duthie, who is judging Shorthorns at the exhibition, is the largest breeder of Shorthorns in the British Empire.

HEARST'S BOMB FOR BRYAN.

Shadow Has Details of Meeting With Pierpont Morgan.

New York, Sept. 2.—A story emanating from the Hearst headquarters at the Gilsey House yesterday gave the details of how an employe of Mr. Hearst for two months and a half had shadowed Mr. Bryan thruout his travels in Europe.

This person, it was reported, brought back the details of a meeting in Europe between Mr. Bryan and a representative of J. Pierpont Morgan. It was to discover if Mr. Bryan met any agent of Morgan, Belmont or Ryan while abroad that the Hearst employe was sent, and it was asserted yesterday that he had brought back the information he sought.

Emmanuel R. E. Anniversary.

The third anniversary of the present pastorate of Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal Church, Shaw-street, Toronto, was celebrated yesterday.

The rector, Rev. George Orman, preached in the morning. Rev. O. H. Baritrop assisting in the service.

The evening service will be long remembered. Dr. John Potts was the preacher, and his theme, "Christ as a Worker," held the closest attention and interest of all present. Feeling reference in prayer and speech was made at both services to the bereavement sustained by Dr. Elmore Harris in the death of his son.

Next Sunday evening the presiding Bishop, Dr. Fellowes, will preach and conduct a confirmation service.

Two Out for Mayor.

Chatham, Sept. 2.—Ald. Thomas Scullard and Ald. William Stone are out for the mayoralty for 1907.

FIRST WEEK AT THE FAIR CROWDS BIGGER THAN EVER

And With Fine Weather To-Day, the "Biggest Ever" is Expected.

The first week of the exhibition has proved highly gratifying to those who are in a position to know the attendances and receipts. In spite of the reports based on "estimates," the assurance is given that the receipts are in excess of those for the first week of the fair for three years past anyway, while the attendance has been larger. Saturday's attendance was the best for any first week day on record and the crowd to-day is expected to eclipse "the best ever." In order to ensure the safety of all, it has been decided that no driving around the grounds in rigs or autos will be permitted. They may enter the grounds and proceed south to the lake front but that is the limit. Exit for vehicles will be by Strachan-avenue gates only.

The grounds will be in splendid shape, if no more rain comes. There was only a brief shower there yesterday, the storm being to the north.

For the directors' luncheon to-day the invited guests include officers of the trades council, board of trade, builders' exchange, city council, ex-mayors and ex-members of the board of control, and presidents of various clubs and organizations.

The dog show opens to-day, with a large entry list.

The entries in the poultry show at the fair this year are so numerous as to sadly overtax the space available. There are about 2800 entries, 400 more than last year, with barred rocks and Wyandottes particularly to the fore.

There is also shown in the increased number of pigeons exhibited a healthy growth in interest. There are about 1100 birds entered, or some 260 more than were cataloged last year, while it is stated that more than half the number are shown by United States fanciers. The Jacobins are especially numerous with 86 entries, while the Pouters show 48. In these classes and in owls the Canadian exhibitors more than held their own, while the invaders had the best of it with the dragoons and fan tans. Asman of Syracuse cutting a swath with the former. Other U. S. cities represented are New York, Detroit, Rochester, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Dunkirk.

There is also a most flattering tale to tell about the entries for canaries, there being about 320, altho with the exception of Robert Harvie, Woodstock, and W. Wylie, London, the exhibitors all belong to Toronto.

The Schomberg team played the concluding game of their tour on Friday on the Mimico Asylum grounds, losing the only game of the series by 107 runs. Kingston Polo Team's Tour.

Kingston, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—The Kingston polo team will leave Sunday morning for Montreal by R. & O. steamer, where they will play the return game with the team of that place. The line-up will probably be the same as in the game here, with the possible exception of William Harty, who is suffering from injuries received in the game with Rochester last week. He will, however, accompany the team with his pony, and in case he is unable to play Captain Russell Brown of the R. M. C. will act as substitute. The other players are Lieut.-Col. Williams, Major Mosely and Fred McPharland.

Pale? Thin?

How is it with the children these days? Have they plenty of grit, courage, strength? Or are they thin, pale, delicate? This reminds you of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It does great things for children. It gives them a good appetite, improves their digestion, builds up their general health. Ask your doctor if he endorses this. We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines! J. C.
