There is a whole lot of truth in that remark, for we certainly have the finest collection of overceatsfrom 10.00 to 30.00-that has ever graced our tables. Every style is represented, and all the details that go to make up a good coat are shown. We extend to all a most cordial welcome and sincerely hope that you will accept our invitation to "COME ON IN."

Alex. Hammer Cornered by Gang of Farmers in Odd Way-Death of Geo. Pfann.

Hamilton, Oct. 10.-(Special.)-This oon Alex Hammer was fou ity at the assizes of stealing six rley farmer. The theft was detect in an odd way. Hammer loaded the heep in a wagon, and, while on the way home, one of his horses balked. He was forced to get anothe from a farmer who liver nearby, and it was in this way that the theft was discovered. He was cornered by a gang of farmers, and deserted the rig. A short time afterwards he was arrested in Galt. Sentence was not passed upon him this afternoon, and he was given a few days in which to produce witnesses, who could testify to his previous good behavior. He did not engage a lawyer, and the court appointed Ald. James Dickson to look after his interests.
