Transvaal Burghers Are Still Massing in the Vicinity of the Natal Boundary in Conjunction With Orange Free
State Artillery.

Britain Sends a "Hurry Call" to Gibraltar to Send the Second Battalion of Grenadiers, Embarked for London, off to the Cape—Cabinet Meets
To-Day.

London, Sept. 28.—A despatch to The Daily Mail from Charlestown says: "Commanding is proceeding in the Wakker-strom district probably throughout the Transvaal. Two thousand burghers are assembled at Wakkerstrom, which is eight miles from the Natal border and eleven from Laing's Nek. Twelve hundred have been ordered to Sandspit, 33 miles west of the Natal boundary, where they will meet Orange Free State Artillery, which has been lying low in the neighborhood for a fortnight."

A "HURRY CALL" SENT To the Second Grenadiers Just as They Were Leaving Gibraltar for London Yesterday.

London, Sept. 28.—As the second battalion of Grenadiers embarked on a transport at Gibraltar for London this afternoon they received a "hurry call," ordering them to proceed to the Cape, for which place they start to-morrow.

The Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, arrived at the Foreign Office this afternoon. The Cabinet Council is summoned to meet at 1.30 p.m. to-morrow.

The Speaker of the House of Commons, Mr. William Court Gully, is returning to London and Sir Henry Campbell-Banneman, the Liberal leader in the House, and Mr. Herbert Gladstone, the Liberal whip, will arrive here Monday.

A cable despatch to The Times from Cape Town says: "The Boers would have taken the initiative for peace, but the secrecy of water, there not being yet settled. There will be great difficulty in providing food for the people remaining at Johannesburg after hostilities have commenced."

War is Now Certain.
Several responsible persons who have long believed in the belief that a permanent settlement now regard war as "inevitable."

Arms for the Boers.
The Birmingham Post says two cargoes of arms and ammunition for the Boers, comprising 50,000 improved Mausers, 500,000 cartridges and several tons of dynamite charges.

AFRAID OF CHAMBERLAIN.
It is Said That Kruger's Scheme Now is to Go West to Salisbury if Possible.

London, Sept. 28.—The Daily Chronicle says: "We understand on the best authority that the delay attending the Boer reply to the offer of peace is due to the fact that Mr. Chamberlain intends to demand disarmament, a heavy indemnity, and the withdrawal of Mr. Leyds, which could only result in war."

The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: The Transvaal Executive is absorbed in war preparations.
Many Boers oppose aggressive action on religious grounds. The Hand's resolution has made the Brotherhood of arms believe in a strong probability of an absolute certainty, and the British will have to face the situation.

The Volksraad's resolution was as follows: "The Volksraad, having read paragraph 2 of the President's speech, and the offi-

Official Proclamation of That Effect Issued From Bloemfontein, the Capital.

London, Sept. 28.—The decision of the Volksraad of the Orange Free State to join the Transvaal in the event of hostilities, has been fully expected. It is expected to-day, and will, naturally, stiffen the Boers' independent attitude. The Hand's resolution has made the Brotherhood of arms believe in a strong probability of an absolute certainty,
and the British will have to face the situation.

FREE STATE JOINS KRUGER.

London, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The long-overdue Dominion Line steamship Scotia-man for the safety of which there has been so much anxiety during the past week, was reported this morning as being ashore on Belle Isle, five miles east of the light-house. Her passengers and crew, numbering in all 350 souls, are reported all safe, 200 of them being on the Elder-Dempster Company's steamship Montfort, which passed Health Point this morning at 9 o'clock and signalled the news, which was conveyed to Messrs. Torrance, the local agents of the Dominion Line, through the courtesy of Messrs. Torrance & Co.'s despatch. Later in the day Messrs. Torrance received an unsigned despatch from Change Island, Newfoundland, in a point in Notre Dame Bay, about 100 miles south of the point where the boat was supposed to be lying, as follows:

"We came ashore on ledge close inshore, five miles east of Belle Isle Light, Passengers all landed, but no provisions on the island depot. All holds full. Ship lying over. Immediate assistance imperative."

DRAGGED ALMOST TO DEATH.

Wife and Daughter of Mr. Albert Armstrong of McIntosh's Mills the Victims of a Runaway.

Brookville, Ont., Sept. 28.—The wife and little daughter of Mr. Armstrong of McIntosh's Mills were very seriously injured in a runaway accident here this afternoon.

The greatest excitement of the town, Mr. Armstrong's wife, Mrs. Armstrong, was in charge of a team of horses in charge of his wife for a few minutes. She was driving to a neighborhood around a corner, upsetting the carriage and throwing Mrs. Armstrong and her child out of the door. They were dragged beneath the upturned wagon for some distance. The child's skull is fractured and Mrs. Armstrong is badly injured about the head and face.

MOTHER MAY FOLLOW CHILD.

Mrs. George Kay, whose Daughter
Was Burned to Death, is Very Low.

Mrs. George Kay, mother of little Mabel Kay, who was fatally burned while playing at a bonfire near her home last Saturday, is lying at her home at 55 Grant Street, in most precarious condition as the result of burns she sustained while attempting to save her child's life. Physicians have been in almost constant attendance upon the unfortunate woman since the fatal accident, and they are doing all in their power to bring her round. Mrs. Kay's fingers and hands have been badly burned, and all the skin has been burned away.
Her nose is seriously burned and also her face and neck. She is suffering from shock, but no internal injuries have been found.

After a consultation the doctors have decided to perform a skin-grafting operation on Mrs. Kay, but owing to her low condition, it cannot take place until a week or so.

TRAGEDY ENDED IN CHICAGO

Terrible Sequel to the Elopement of a Married Man and Woman From Toronto.

E. J. BROWN BLOWS HIS BRAINS OUT

While Mrs. Violet Holden and Two Children Are at the Harrison-Street Police Station.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—E. J. Brown lies a corpse in the morgue, while Mrs. Violet Holden, with whom he eloped from Toronto, three weeks ago, is being cared for, with her two children, at the Harrison-street Police Station.

Brown shot himself in the right temple in his room at the Queen's Hotel.

In his coat was found a letter, in which he declared that he took his life because he could not bear to see his companion worry over their sin.

It developed after the suicide that Mrs.
Holden deserted a husband and four children, and Brown left his wife and three children.

Lived on 191 Howland Avenue.
The suicide is the husband of Mrs. Brown, residing at 191 Howland Avenue. He left home about three weeks ago, telling no one where he was going. His wife suspected from the stories told her by neighbors that he had been keeping company with a woman and had been seen frequently with her in the vicinity of his own home. Several residents of the street who were acquainted with Brown say he drove a car, the property of Holden, the butcher.

THE DEAD MAN.
The dead man was about 38 years of age.
He is tall and of slim build, with red hair and mustache. He was supposed to be of an eccentric nature and his peculiar habits often aroused the curiosity of the neighbors.
He leaves two children.

Mrs. George Kay, whose Daughter
Was Burned to Death,
