Another year has passed and with it little change in our Society. We go on from year to year quietly and steadily, progressing in knowledge of and interest in Missions.

The attendance at our meetings, which have been held the first Friday of the month, with the exception of the summer months, has been much the same as last year, the average attendance being 35.

The devotional exercises led by our President, Mrs. Mackay, have been most helpful. This year the portions of Scripture chosen have been those bearing on Christian work, showing how best it may stand the test of the Judgment Seat of Christ.

This is followed by praise and prayer. Our missionary knowledge has been gained from papers of world-wide missionary intelligence. These papers have been read by the younger ladies of the congregation.

In the spring we had a visit from Miss McLean—a Missionary from Persia, a land about which we as an Auxiliary have hitherto heard little. Miss McLean's address was both interesting and instructive. She brought with her some of the garments worn by the natives, as well as many other curios, which were examined with great interest. Letters from Miss Dow, the Society's missionary in Honan, have been read from time to time, as also letters
