ackland Geddes Says Government's Policy Is That Who Caused War Be Punished to Full Extent—Commanders Too May Suffer Extreme Penalty.

ON, Dec. 5.—David Lloyd tonight in the election gave a re-statement of cy. In it he declared that y responsible for the war escape because their heads owned, but that they must by an international court.
George also declared him-favor of the expulsion and of enemy aliens.

Dec. 5.—(British Wireless) Sir Auckland Geddes, presi-local government board and national service. In a pub-said that the line of policy by the Coalition Government e which, so far as the enemy e concerned, should be based justice, and so far as those planned and started the war rred, should be founded on the nature meted out in the courts of the land.

of unspeakable atrocities tions and upon the civilian of the invaded lands," he continued, "must stand trial, and if they are convicted must suffer death." It had to be proved how far the commanders of submarines acted under orders, which they had to carry out under pain of death, or how far they acted on their own volition, he pointed out, but if the atrocities at sea were committed on the volition of individual commanders, he declared, they, too, must suffer the extreme penalty.

"Today is the day of reckoning for our enemies," said the minister, "and they will have to pay to the uttermost farthing what it is possible to bring out of them."

CLEMENCEAU COMMENTS
Crown Prince's Interview Draws Fire of British Press.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—A German physician, summoned from Berlin on Tuesday by the former German emperor, arrived in Holland today on a special train, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam.

Three members of the former emperor's staff, the dispatch adds, have left Amerongen for Berlin. They are carrying many documents concerning the former emperor's private property.

HIS FATE IS SEALED.
PARIS, Dec. 5.—There is complete agreement between the Allies on all questions, particularly that concerning the former German emperor, declared Premier Clemenceau on his return from London last night.

He expressed deep satisfaction over the important results obtained at the conference. The premier said he had been deeply moved by the magnificent reception given him by the British.

DUTCH MAY OUST HIM.
THE HAGUE, Dec. 5.—(Wednesday.)
—During a debate in the Netherlands Upper Chamber today Deputy March-and expressed the opinion that should the presence of the former German emperor in Holland give rise to difficulties abroad the Government must request him to return to Germany.

The chamber refused to grant to Deputy Wynkoop, revolutionary Socialist, permission to interpolate the foreign ministry regarding William Hohenzollern's presence on Dutch territory, the passage of German through Holland and the reports of the massacre of Jews in Galicia.

CROWN PRINCE PLEADS.
LONDON, Dec. 5.—"You English clamor to get father and me away from Holland. We are down and out and my father is a broken man, isn't that enough punishment?" the German crown prince said in an interview on the island of Wieringen, with a correspondent of the Daily Mirror.
Frederick William added that he always favored an agreement between Germany and Great Britain, and wished them to work together. A number of his best friends were in England and he only wished he could live there as a private citizen.

"I quarrelled with my father in regard to Great Britain," he continued.
"I told him the British would be against us. He never believed this, and would not take into account that possibility."
An Editorial Tid-Bit.
The interview with Frederick William, the former German crown prince, obtained Tuesday by the Associated Press, has created widespread interest in Great Britain.

"It must be regarded as one of the most sensational interviews ever recorded," editorially declares the Evening News. "Unlike some documents of this sort it bears every evidence of genuineness. Its main purpose is, as we might expect, not a very brave one. It is intended to exculpate the former crown prince at the expense of anybody else who happened to be convinced."
"Not the least significant passage of the interview is the praise of President Wilson. That is not like gratitude. It was the president who boiled the issues of the war down to the former German emperor. He said from the beginning and throughout, 'Thou art the man' and insisted there could be no peace either with the emperor or his system."

BRITAIN'S DAY

UNITED STATES
Great Republic Will Attest Glory of Noble Race of People.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—In honor and recognition of Great Britain's sacrifices and services in the war Saturday will be celebrated as "Britain's Day" all over the United States, and proclamations by governors of states from coast to coast have called upon citizens to mark the occasion by display of flags and with appropriate ceremonies. The people of this state were reminded especially of their debt to the British nation in a proclamation by Governor Whitman, as follows:

"In generous recognition of her intrinsically noble and her unswerving loyalty to the ideals of civilization, Saturday, December 7, will be observed throughout the country as Britain's Day."

GERMAN CROWN PRINCE EATS OYSTERS, DRINKS CHAMPAGNE AND STRUTS BEFORE MIRROR

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 5.—The German crown prince, trudging over muddy country lanes in Dutch sabots, is a familiar sight on the Island of Wieringen, says a correspondent of the Telegraaf. He declares that what he misses most is a riding horse.

Frederick William plays billiards with the villagers and treats them to drinks and smokes, and buys candy for the children.
The younger Hohenzollern has his breakfast at 8:30 o'clock and his dinner at 7 p.m. He eats oyster and drinks champagne regularly; unlike his father, who dines plainly. Nevertheless he is reported to suffer from fits of depression. Sometimes, according to eyewitnesses, he dons a full uniform, resplendent with medals, and parades in front of the mirror. He then resumes a woolen sweater and knickerbockers and plays the violin. He is said to have a deep dread of Spanish influenza, and takes preventive medicine regularly. He becomes extremely nervous, it is added, when strangers near him make abrupt movements.

QUEEN MARY ADDRESSES TOUCHING MESSAGE TO WOMEN OF THE EMPIRE

OTTAWA, Dec. 5.—The following message from Her Majesty the Queen to the women of the Empire has been received by His Excellency the Governor-General:
"A few months ago at the height of our anxiety and strain I sent a message in the name of the women of our lands to our men fighting for us across the seas. Now, in an hour of thankfulness and hope I should like to give a message to the women of the Empire. During the war they have been given the high privilege of service; they have risen to the great opportunity, and have proved their courage, steadfastness and ability.
Continue Self-Sacrifice.
"I have been allowed to watch and appreciate their work in many parts of the country, and my heart is full of admiration and gratitude for what I have seen. I earnestly trust that though the thrill and glamor of war is over the spirit of self-sacrifice and helpfulness which they kindled will not wane in the coming days. A new era is dawning upon the world, bringing with it many difficulties, fresh responsibilities and serious problems to be faced.
"Parliament has secured for the whole country greater opportunities of more thorough and varied education, but it will depend upon the parents whether these opportunities are used to the full.

LORD ROBERT CECIL WILL TAKE CHARGE OF LEAGUE SECTION

Announces That He Will Lead in Argument at Conference.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Lord Robert Cecil, former assistant secretary of state for foreign affairs, has been asked by the Government to take charge of the British section at the peace congress, which is to deal with the question of a league of nations.
Lord Robert made this announcement in a speech at Letchworth: "I very cordially accepted the invitation," said Lord Robert. "There is no better work I would readily do for my country than to get up the British case, and state it at this conference in favor of the greatest political and social reform it is possible to achieve in the interests of mankind."
