

and our services, our adhesion to all the time-honored and Scriptural practices of the early Apostolic Church, and our rejection of all that is superstitious and contrary to sound doctrine of Holy Scripture, marks our Church as an especial witness for Christ. Let us, then, so walk, that we bring no reproach upon the name which we bear. Let us see to it, that we be a peculiar people, zealous of good works, adding to godliness, brotherly kindness to all who love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity, and to brotherly kindness, charity to the world at large; for if these things be in us, we cannot be unfruitful in the day of Christ. To whom be glory.
