The Report now presented emanates from the Committee of the Kingston Auxiliary of the Upper Canadian Bible Society, not, as heretofore, of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

This new affiliation was brought about, and ratified, with the cordial consent of both parties at the last annual meeting; the respected delegate of the Parent Society, the Rev. Dr. GILL, being present, and signifying his entire approbation of the measure. It is well to bear in mind, however, that, although we shall not in future report directly to the British and Foreign Bible Society, or stand in so close a relation as formerly to that noble institution, yet our affection for her need, and we trust will not, suffer any abatement, nor our interest in her prosperity be at all impaired by this change of circumstances. Mr. BROOKMAN commenced his visitation of our branches in May, and continued it for seven weeks. Mr. JOHNSON his towards the end of October, and finished in December. Both of these gentlemen have sent in interesting reports, containing valuable information. The improvement alluded to above has been manifested in such things as the following:—Meetings more numerous attended; arrears of debts paid up partially in some instances, wholly in a few; the reception of free grants to the amount of $170:30, &c. The whole of the old debt has been paid off by the Madoc, Stirling
