What To Give At Christmas-Tide!

The holiday atmosphere prevades every nook and corner of our big, roomy stores with their almost limitless suggestions of suitable gifts for the Festal Day. In each department the spirit of giving holds sway and a visit to the various sections will reveal to you multitudes of appropriate remembrances for everyone from grandpa down to the wee tots.

Attractive, convenient display has been featured throughout the general arrangement reducing to the minimum the strain and effort attending Christmas shopping.

THE MORNING HOURS ARE BEST!

You will be much wiser to choose the mornings for gift-seeking, for, you move so readily from section to section, and there is likely to be less crowding, thus permitting of more thoughtful and leisurely selections than would be possible during afternoons and evenings. Besides our sales staff can give you more much individual assistance than later in the day.
