Don't Miss Our Bargains On Saturday and Monday

We have always something special for Saturday and Monday. These are our bargain days and we intend to keep this up all through war time. This is to help keep down the price and make business as usual during the war. We are not trying to make money just now, but we do intend, with your help, to keep business as usual or better, and if price-cutting will do it, I am sure we will win.
