Women's Dressy Boots

On Friday and Saturday we sold hundreds of pairs of these boots. They are stylish, smart, attractive-looking, and fit beautifully. Being mostly patent, time alone will tell how they wear. But one thing is sure, a woman can have doubly shod feet at a very low price.

"I want to state that I have never taken anything to do me so much good as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food," writes Mrs. Edson Brock, Trenholmville, Que, "and I am never without it in the house. I was so nervous I could not sleep, but now I sleep soundly at nights and wake up feeling refreshed and ready for the day's work. I used the Nerve Food for months and found that it just suits my needs and has built up the system wonderfully. I know it is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Nerve Food that has brought about the great change in my condition and am thankful for it.

"My husband was a great sufferer from itching piles and has been entirely cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment."

We are constantly receiving letters like this in regard to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Everywhere it is being used because of its great restorative and reconstructive influence on the nervous system. Bates & Co., Toronto

Ryan of the 6th Mounted Rifles, at Amherst a few days ago asked his men if they would be willing to go as an infantry unit if that became necessary. The response was entirely satisfactory. The men want to go as a mounted regiment, but they are ready to follow their colonel as infantry if he asks them. Col. Ryan was more proud than ever of his men when they gave this evidence of their devotion, and he assured them he was confident they would get their horses and go as mounted men. He merely asked the question  once—now. Delay may be dangerous. The 6th have improved greatly during their stay in Amherst, and the effect of their daily drill is seen in their fine physical condition and the precision with which they march and execute the various movements incident to their training. They have yet, however, to be provided with mounts. A ten or fifteen or twenty mile march is as nothing to them now. One day they marched twenty-three miles, and the colonel says they could do forty if necessary. In simple, forceful words the chaplain dwelt upon the fact that when God has a task for a man or a nation to perform the Holy Spirit sustains them, and he urged that each individual in his own life seek the sustaining power of that spirit, and go forward fearing nought that might befall. In the midst of those who listened earnestly to the sermon was one who but the day before had been told of the death of his younger brother at Langemarck; and there was another who, while the hymn that is an invocation for the safety of those in peril on the sea was being sung, sat with bowed head, obviously moved by some deep feeling awakened by the service. Perhaps he, too, was a mourner, for there are many such in these twying days in Canada.  London, May 26—"I hope one of the first acts of the coalition government will be to declare martial law and mobilize both men and women for the service of the country, said Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, leader of the militant storight.  Mrs. Pankhurst expressed the hope that women would soon be permitted to enlist like men for war service at home. We now offer an improvement the advantage of which will be noted from the above illustration. The watch has its own armor plate which protects and partially covers the crystal.

This is the most substantial wrist watch made for military men. It has a solid back case with two bezels, rendering it weather proof.

We venture to say that the strength and reliability of these watches will well correspond with the same fighting qualities of the Canadian soldiers who wear them.
