BOWLING.

New Alley Record.
Sensational bowling continues on the Y. M. C. I. alleys and again featured a double-header played in the Y. M. C. I. House League last evening. In the first match the Owls defeated the Eagles, taking all four points and aggregating a total of 1,467. The rolling in this game was very consistent. In the second match the Swans sprang a surprise by taking all four points from the Owls, despite the fact that the losers totalled 442. In winning the Swans established a new alley three-string record of 1,486, which was formerly held by their opponents with 1,457. In the second string of this match the winners made 333 and the Owls 237. This string was a merry contest all through, with spares plentiful and a few strikes. The scores in the matches were:—

FARM WON BY BOUT.
Ex-officers Settled Farm Dispute by Boxing.
A curious story of a farming venture by two ex-officers was told yesterday in Dochester Bankruptcy Court, says an English despatch.

Thomas John Wade, a young Irishman, said that he and another ex-officer took a farm at Cheshill, with private capital, augmented by a £500 grant from the Officers' Association and money from the War Agricultural Committee.

They soon quarrelled, said Wade and at last they agreed to "box for it" and thus decide which one was to stay on the farm. He added: "We had the fight and I won."

The farm, however, has not proved a success, and Wade estimated that his affairs show a deficiency of £2,212.

REFUGEES FROM BATUM.
Constantinople, March 24.—Several hundred refugees from Batum, now occupied by elements of the 11th Russian Bolshevik army, have arrived here on board the United States steamer Glen. They report that Batum was quiet when they left.

Their Ancestors.
The war profiteer had a fine colonial estate in Virginia. He was showing a guest over the grounds one-day, and pointed to a quaint old private cemetery.

"Those," he said, "are the graves of the former owner's ancestors."

"Our ancestors," his wife broke in proudly, "are all living."
