

THE GENERAL PUBLIC HOSPITAL AVAILABLE IF IT IS NECESSARY

The hospital situation in St. John is now such that the authorities have no fears of not being able to cope with the epidemic situation. The new hospital at the Parks home can accommodate forty patients, the epidemic hospital twenty, the isolation hospital twenty-four, and if the situation demands it, the general public hospital will provide room for sixty more, making a total of about 150 beds available.

The decision to open the General Public Hospital for influenza patients was reached yesterday, after a warm discussion during which, much opposition was shown. This opposition has been swept away by an avalanche of telegrams from provincial hospitals throughout the country telling them they are doing under similar circumstances. The county secretary, J. King Kelly, wired various cities.

IN MEMORIAM

VAUGHAN—In loving memory of my dear husband, Pte. W. H. Vaughan, who was killed in action on Oct. 30, 1917.

Alone he lay in a foreign land, While his life blood ebbed away, But Britain's name he fought to shield All through the bloody battle's fray. Death's chilly pallor stole over his cheek, In his eye a deadly gleam, He has done his bit for his country's sake.

May his name be forever praised. WIFE AND SONS, JOHN, HERBERT, ERNEST AND ROLAND.

ADAMS—In memory of Pte. George R. Adams, killed in action, October 30, 1917.

Just one year, my dear brother, since the angels called you from this world of care. We loved you, but Jesus loved you best, and in this mighty struggle called you home to rest. You are gone from us, but we will meet you in Heaven, in that land beyond the skies—Mother, sisters, and brothers, we will greet our darling boy.

SISTER, MRS. J. M. POWER.

CARD OF THANKS

I am very thankful to the many friends in the Sugar Refinery for contributions, through efforts to Dean Skinner, for funeral expenses of my son, James Johnson.

MRS. ETHEL FOWLER.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong and family thank the doctors and staff of the St. James street Military Hospital for their kindness to Gunner Herbert R. Armstrong.

LITTLE ONE DEAD.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stackhouse will sympathize with them in the loss of their youngest child Villis, who died yesterday after a short illness.

DUNHAM-McGUIRE.

T. Enley Dunham and Miss Annie Frances McGuire were united in marriage in St. John's Baptist church this morning by Rev. F. J. McMurray, who was officiating at the nuptial mass. Owing to the prevailing epidemic the wedding was quiet and the principals were unattended.

PROCEEDS OF FAIR

The total receipts of the big fair recently held in the St. Andrew's rink were $7,000.63. Of this amount $4,223.51 was required to pay expenses, leaving $2,777.12 profit. This amount was divided as follows:—Trades and Labor Council, $640.08, and Great War Veterans' Association, $1,223.02.

HOSPITAL BALCONIES

At a meeting of a special committee of the municipal council, it was decided to go ahead with the erection of balconies on the county hospital in East St. John, according to plans prepared several months ago. As the balconies will be enclosed in glass, they will be available for use in winter as well as in milder weather.

DEATH OF ELLERY JONES

Ellery Jones of Gerow's Wharf, King's county, N. B., passed away in the General Public Hospital yesterday afternoon following an operation. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Jones, and survived by three brothers, C. G. Jones of this city, R. W. Jones of Calgary, and Dr. A. E. Jones of Kansas City; also two sisters, Mrs. Roy Robertson of this city and Miss Grace at home.

CURING TETANUS CASE

By the use of tetanus serum, employed under the direction of Dr. Abramson, provincial pathologist, a cure is being effected at the General Public Hospital in the case of a young man afflicted with this disease, more commonly known as lock-jaw. It is believed that this is the first successful case in which a cure has been made.

SERBIAN VISITOR OPTIMISTIC

A Serbian with his wife and several small children, dressed in the bright native costume of the little Balkan country, attracted considerable attention in the depot at noon. They were passing through to Sydney from Sydney, Ont. The father, when spoken to on war topics, beamed with delight and said that very soon King Peter would leave his refuge in Greece and once more sit upon the Serbian throne. No wall matter has filtered through from Serbia to Canada for more than two years.

POLICE COURT.

Charles Ross was before the magistrate this morning on a charge of drunkenness and violently resisting the police. He pleaded guilty to being drunk and not guilty to the charge of resisting. Policeman Cook said he resisted being arrested and did a considerable lot of fighting. As Ross took ill in the court room he was sent below, first being informed that he was liable to a fine of $5.

George Mealy was charged with assaulting P. C. Beckingham in a shed off Reid's Point. Beckingham said that Mealy asked him whether or not he was a man that took an X-ray out of the case. Mealy, he said, without waiting for an answer, knocked him down and badly hurt him about the face. The case was set over until this afternoon. The magistrate intimated that it was possible that he would have Mealy examined by a doctor.

He took an active part in the affairs of the county and his death will be learned with regret. He was fifty-eight years of age and leaves one daughter, Miss Pauline, and several brothers.

LIQUOR FOR NORTH END.

Chief Inspector W. D. Wilson told the Times today that in the matter of a liquor dispensary in North End—a request through the press—no appointment had yet been made, but a deposit might be established there for epidemic purposes. There are dispensaries now in Charlotte street, Brussels street and West St. John.

HOW A WATCH HELPS A MAN

A good watch is a distinct asset for a man. It is a mark of efficiency, good business judgment, and the habit of promptness. It strengthens him in the good opinion of others, and is an invaluable aid in the performance of his business and social obligations.

You owe it to yourself to yourself to carry a good watch.

We foresee the shortage in watches in time to protect our stock.

There is no shortage here.

GREAT BREAK IN THE PRICES OF WOMEN'S HIGH CLASS FALL SUITS

Commencing Thursday, October 31, and continuing while garments in stock last, lovely suits to be sold at little more, and in some cases less, than manufacturers' prices. The unseasonable weather and the holding back of trade have come in to spoil the usual selling of high class tailored suits. This was a condition that could not be foreseen, and we have to make up our minds to a big loss. As the saying goes, however, "it is an ill wind that blows nobody good," and there will be some wonderful suits to be had. Get this into your mind also, these suits are the very best of the season's showing for smart original styles and fine materials; every one being personally selected and many New York models, only one of a kind. Greatly reduced prices, $17.50, $22.50, $28 and $42.50—Daniel's, 400-410 of King street. See ad. page 5.

CHEAPER MEALS IN LONDON.

National Restaurants, Passengers Report, Are Checking Profitability.

Passengers arriving in New York the other day said that the national restaurants opened by the government in London to supply good meals at moderate prices had been so successful that others were to be established all over the city. Three thousand persons eat lunches and suppers at the big restaurant in New Bridge Street at a cost of a little more than one shilling each. Teas and breakfasts average sevenpence halfpenny.

ANOTHER RESTAURANT IS TO BE OPENED

at Ludgate Hill, near St. Paul's Cathedral; on near the Bank of England, and a third in Oxford Street. Passengers said these restaurants had been established on account of profiteering by the ordinary restaurant and eating house proprietors, who, it was said, had charged the people double prices and given them very little to eat.

ST. JOHN MAY HAVE TO BUY MORE HEAVILY

Hon. Mr. Carvell, while in the city yesterday, was greatly interested in the work of the Victory Loan committee and he spoke earnestly of the urgent necessity for the nation to loan to be successful. It was, he said, a national duty on the part of every Canadian to subscribe to this Victory Loan and assist to provide the funds necessary for completing the wonderful efforts that Canada had made in this empire struggle.

FROM THE PRESENT OUTLOOK IT WOULD SEEM AS IF HOSTILITIES MIGHT CEASE IN THE NEAR FUTURE, AND WHILE IT IS PROVED TRUE THERE WOULD NOT BE THE GREAT NECESSITY FOR MEN, STILL THERE WOULD BE NEED OF WONDERFUL SUMS OF MONEY FOR THE PURPOSE OF DEMOLITION, TO ENABLE CANADA TO RESTORE THE HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF MEN TO THEIR OCCUPATIONS.

"It would be a year, yes, perhaps two years," said Mr. Carvell, "before these men would be able to return to their native land and tremendous sums of money will be required to see that they are all well looked after and enabled to have their places again in the national life of Canada."

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS, HE SAID, WERE COMING IN, ACCORDING TO THE INFORMATION THE GOVERNMENT HAD, FROM EVERY QUARTER AND THAT THERE WERE MANY OTHER PEOPLE WHO WOULD SUBSCRIBE IF THEY WERE QUITE FULLY AND THOROUGHLY SURE THAT THEIR BANKERS WOULD STAND BY THEM TO THE END. THE GOVERNMENT EXPECTED THE BANKS OF THE COUNTRY TO GIVE EVERY POSSIBLE ASSISTANCE TO THE PEOPLE TO CARRY THEIR VICTORY BONDS AND THAT THEY WOULD BE ASSISTED AND GIVEN AS MUCH CREDIT AS THEY WERE ENTITLED TO.

HON. MR. CARVELL PREDICTED THAT THE LOAN WOULD BE A WONDERFUL SUCCESS IF THE BUSINESS MEN OF THE COUNTRY MAINTAINED THE GREAT EFFORT THEY HAD UNDERTAKEN, AN EFFORT WHICH WAS NECESSARY TO BE GREATER BECAUSE OF THE UNFORTUNATE situation created by the epidemic. Last Night's Meeting.

The depot battalion assisted in attracting a very large crowd before the Imperial theatre last night, and while the weather was anything but conducive to open-air meetings it gave the workers fresh courage when so many attended and remained until the end of the programme. F. A. Dykeman, chairman of the War Lectures Bureau, presided.

MAYOR HAYES OPENED WITH A STRONG APPEAL TO EVERYONE PRESENT TO BUY, AND THEY AGED. TO BUY BUY HE DID NOT NECESSARILY MEAN TO BUY MORE THAN ONE WAS ABLE TO FINANCIALLY, BUT TO BUY WITH A BIG HEART MEANT BUY TO THE LIMIT.

Then the "bond barbers" went forth and gave their crisp messages, while in the lobby of the theatre keen salesmen were on duty behind the long rows of tables and much money and many bonds changed hands.

S. E. ELKIN, M. P., THEN "CARRIED ON" WITH THE PROGRAMME, SPEAKING FROM A FEDERAL STANDPOINT OF THE EXPENDITURE NECESSARY TO CARRY ON CANADA'S PART IN THE GREAT STRUGGLE WHICH WAS NOW AT SUCH A HOPEFUL STAGE AND THE GLORIOUS PART THE CANADIAN BROWN HAD PLAYED IN THE WAR AND THE GLORIOUS PART IT WAS ALSO POSSIBLE FOR THE CANADIAN BOAT TO PLAY.

Traffic was held up by special policemen on that side of the square, so that those in the crowd were not once disturbed
