JAMES V. RUSSELL CLEARANCE SALE 695 MAIN STREET

years after his accession, laughter, amazement and a half-scandalized applause followed the Kaiser wherever he went and in all the things he did and said. He was the "enfant terrible" among the royalty of Europe. He was always startling the world by some new freakish impulse, some grotesque oration, some new display of quaint versatility.

William flashed around Europe with unbridled pomp and yards of tinsel. William mounted the pulpit. William flung the doctrine of divine right in the very face of triumphant democracy. William scolded his nobles; proclaimed his mastery of the aims and spirit of the twentieth century; threatened to "dash to pieces all who opposed him," settled a great strike as a father settles a nursery dispute; devised new uniforms and court dress, new dances and pageants, saved society with an international conference; painted pictures, composed verses; dismissed Bismarck and became, in truth, William the Second to None. In all his characters he intrigued, mystified, shocked or disturbed, a wondering world. His spirit is indomitable, his ambition unquenchable, his pride undaunted. He is clinging tenaciously to the sentiments he once expressed: "There is only one master in this country, and I am he." "The ways into which I and my government have struck are the right ways, nor can I deviate."

Just think of everything you've ever read in a clothing sale advertisement and apply it to this sale—we won't disappoint you.

Here's a bunch of this season's suits—all Al, O. K. and 99 7-8 cent pure—$5 out off the price of $25 suits. From $4 to $9 out on the others.

A whole lot of excellent suits that we are selling for less than they are worth. Some Twentieth Century suits are included, and a few blues.

INTERESTING SKETCH OF GERMAN EMPEROR

The first proclamation William of Germany issued as Emperor he addressed to the army thus: "We belong to each other, I and the army; thus we were born for each other, and firmly and inseparably we will hold together, whether God's will gives us storm or peace."

He has always been a man of energy. True but true, he is much akin to our own Titan of Oyster Bay. For some

THE TURF

New Records
Kalamazoo, Mich., Aug. 12.—Two world's records were broken today by Peter Volo, driven by Tom Murphy, in winning the Horseman and Spirit of the Times futurity for three year old trotters at the Grand Circuit meet here. His time of 2:04 1/2, 2:05 3/4 and 2:06 3/4 make them the three fastest heats ever trotted by a stallion, the former record being 2:07 1/2, 2:08 and 2:02 made in 1910 by The Harvester.

The heats were also the three fastest by a three year old trotter, the honor having previously been held by Lucile Spier, which went them in 2:07 1/2, 2:07 3/4 and 2:11 at Grand Rapids last week.

Tommy Murphy announced the purchase of the trotter Peter Scott by Peter the Great, from Sanford Small of Boston. The price given was $20,000.

AUTO

New World's Record
Wendover, Utah, Aug. 12.—Teddy Tetford this afternoon broke the automobile speedway world's record when he made a mile in 23 1-5 seconds.
