A REPRIMAND FOR LATE AMBASSADOR

President Wilson Sends Regrets To British Foreign Office

NAMESAKE STEPS OUT

Representative of United States in Mexico Gave Indiscreet Interview in Which He Made Attack on British Government Department

(Canadian Press)

Washington, Aug. 15.—President Wilson last night publicly reprimanded Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson for his recent attack on the British foreign office, Ambassador Page, in London, was instructed to express to Sir Edward Grey, the regret of the American government that a diplomatic official of the United States, "should have been guilty of such an impropriety."

The action of the administration here followed receipt of a cablegram from Ambassador Page, officially confirming the Associated Press despatch which had quoted a statement from the British government that it had recognized the Huerta regime in Mexico along with France and Germany after "a congratulatory speech to President Huerta by Ambassador Wilson on behalf of the diplomatic corps in Mexico City."

The official interpretation of the statement here was that Great Britain at the time believed, from Ambassador Wilson's act, that the United States intended to recognize the Huerta government.

Ambassador Wilson in an authorized interview, declared that if the statement really emanated from the British foreign office, it was "a pure subterfuge, unworthy of the British foreign office, and at variance with its traditions and with the character it has maintained before the world for two centuries."

Secretary Bryan after a conference with President Wilson then sent the following cablegram to Ambassador Page: "The interview given to the press yesterday by Mr. Henry Lane Wilson, ambassador of the United States in Mexico, has been accepted to take effect at the end of his vacation, October 14, having been brought to the president's attention by the president's secretary."

Not Worried in England London, Aug. 15.—Surprise was caused in England by the reprimand of Ambassador Page had been instructed to apologize to the British government for the comments by Henry Lane Wilson. The affair had not excited the slightest attention, and the incident has caused no ill feeling.

The "Westminster Gazette," the government organ, says the difficulty between President Wilson and Ambassador Wilson is "purely domestic and will not cause a ripple in the relations between the British and American governments."

President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan may have good reasons of their own for not recognizing Provisional President Huerta's government at the present moment, but they will not make offense at other governments which have taken a different course and least of all at us in the circumstances which have now been disclosed."

WOMEN TELL LEGISLATORS THAT ONLY A FEW WANT TO VOTE

Washington, Aug. 15.—While their unconverted sisters insisting before the house rules committee that a majority of their sex did not want the ballot, delegates to the National Council of Women, voters today met to discuss ways and means for winning universal suffrage.

This was the closing day of the council's three-day conference. The anti-suffragists had their innings today, when, led by Mrs. F. W. Scott, of New York, president of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, they appeared for an informal hearing before the house rules committee. They were prepared to prove, they told the committee, that the agitation was kept up by a comparatively small number and that the greater majority of American women looked with disfavor upon their sex entering the turmoil of politics.

(Canadian Press)

Washington, Aug. 15.—The speech of Chancellor Lloyd George in the British parliament predicting a revolutionary protest from the people against increasing armaments, was the subject of an interesting discussion here yesterday.

"As things stand, the United States cannot permit herself to drop behind Japan, Great Britain and the other powers in the race for preparedness, but it seems to me that all the countries might relax their present standard if they could arrange to do it at the same time."

Part of Town in Ruins and Extension is in Worse Plight

(Canadian Press)

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 15.—Though matters were quite quiet during yesterday, in the Nanaimo strike scenes, though not on quite such an extensive scale. The arrival of the militia had the effect of bringing the strikers to their senses, but when the regulars had left Nanaimo, the crowd again got out of hand and an exciting scene was witnessed when a strike breaker was saving his life by taking refuge in the police station probably was the means of saving his life.

Part of Nanaimo is in ruins, Extension is in a worse plight, and many of the strike breakers are in the hills, seeking refuge. Last night between 800 and 400 militia left Vancouver, the majority of the men going to the strike region, while a small number proceeded to Victoria to replace regulars who are at the front.

No definite steps have been taken towards a settlement though there are rumors to the effect that efforts are being made in that direction.

POLICE SCANDAL IN PARIS COMES TO LIGHT

Innocent People Arrested to Pad Officials' Record—Some Suspensions

(Canadian Press)

Paris, Aug. 15.—The existence of a police scandal hinted at in the press some days ago is officially acknowledged by the prefects by the removal of the commissary of the Fifth Arrondissement and the suspension of eight policemen under the latter functionary's orders.

It was simple. If, for example, they arrested anyone for shoplifting, they would, on the way to the police station, slip into the victim's pocket some article belonging to the shop which was accused of robbing. Naturally protests in Canadian issues would only be short lived, and there would soon be a reaction in their favor, for the British public believe in Canada.

ARREST IN CASE OF MURDER OF TORONTO MAN IN NEW YORK

Police Mum Until Prisoner is Brought to City—The Work of the Sleuths

(Canadian Press)

New York, Aug. 15.—An one-eyed sleuth this morning it was announced that an arrest had been made in connection with the murder of William G. Martin, a Toronto milliner, whose body was found in a West Side rooming house on Tuesday evening.

The prisoner was captured at a point about fifty-five miles from New York, but Deputy Commissioner Dougherty declined to say whether a man or a woman was in custody, and refused further information until the captive had reached New York.

The body of Martin was taken to Toronto by his former partner, William Mortimer. The detectives, despite Mortimer's disclaimer that Martin had met any strange woman when they were together last month, are still of the opinion that the Toronto merchant had come to keep an appointment made at the time of the previous visit.

The sleuths brought from Hoboken today a woman who was formerly janitress of an apartment house in West 48th street, where Mrs. Jones, the landlady of the rooming house, where Martin met his death, formerly had an apartment. Mrs. Jones told the detective that she had seen Martin when he had, as a lodger, Mrs. Rose, who was visited by "Mr. Johnson" the man who rented the room in which Martin met his death. They believe that if Mrs. Rose can be found she will be able to give information as to the identity of "Johnson."

John Martin, the father of the murdered man, will at the home of Mrs. Barrett, a millinery buyer, who accompanied the Toronto man on his buying expedition on Monday.

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND IN THE POLICE COURT TODAY

(Canadian Press)

"Don't you believe a word that woman says, Your Honor. She'd swallow that Bible there just as quick as she'd look at it." This was the high testimonial which William Diamond gave his spouse in the police court this morning.

Mrs. Diamond, who appeared in court with an eye injured, said that she and her husband had had a little difference a few days ago in the course of which he had struck her with his fist and threatened her with a chair, this had been going on for four years and she had at last been forced to enter a complaint.

Diamond admitted the assault but he also had a chapter of household woes to tell of. Of late meals and harsh language which hurt his pride, and intemperance which injured the dignity of his name.

The magistrate listened to both sides carefully and after hearing that there were no children to suffer and that both were able to support themselves advised them to end their troubles by separating. When he asked Diamond whether he was willing, Diamond caused considerable amusement by the alacrity with which he agreed, "Will I leave her alone, he said, 'well I jest guess I will, I'll have nothing more to do with her.'" He was allowed to go without a fine.

Saying that he was a boy when he left Canada, Sir Gilbert said he never looked sides in Canadian politics and, therefore, could not express any opinion on the subject now.

RIVAL GOVERNORS KEEP ON DIRECTING NEW YORK AFFAIRS

Sulzer and Glynn Both Hold the Fort and Things Are Much Confused

(Canadian Press)

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 15.—The second day of the dual administration in New York state dawned on a whirlpool of confusion in the capital. A steel chain saw, a heavy padlock secured the grand seal, the privy seal lay under lock and key, the way to the executive chamber, William Sulzer's citadel, was bolted and barred and from two offices the rival claimants to the governor's chair continued to exercise their functions.

Control of the National Guard, access to the great seal, recognition by New York's secretary of state and by the governor of the neighboring state of New Jersey were prerogatives stopped.

Governor Sulzer, impeached by the Governor Glynn, who claims to be the acting chief executive. Possession of the privy seal, whose imprint validates all documents coming before the governor of affairs wholly within the state and occupancy of the executive chamber, remained with Sulzer.

A sensational report was current that Governor Sulzer would seek the indictment on charge of treason of Chas. F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and organization leader who commanded the anti-Sulzer forces in the battle for impeachment.

"There's nothing to it," asserted Cady Herick, chief of Sulzer's staff of lawyers when asked if the report was true.

Governor Sulzer continued firm in his determination to occupy the executive chamber and administer the state's affairs today.

The possibility of being served with a court order enjoining him from so doing had been the topic of long discussion among his counsel.

Preparations as if for a long siege were made at the executive chambers upon the arrival of Lt. Governor Glynn. The locks on every door leading to the chamber and the governor's private office were changed and an attendant was stationed at each entrance.

The secretary of state, Mitchell May, returned from Saratoga this morning and called at the office of Lt. Governor Glynn before the latter's arrival at the capital.

"I merely called to pay my respects," said Secretary May, "and to assure Mr. Glynn personally that I have decided to recognize him as acting governor. As I read the law I can find no other way for me to act consistently. It is not with me a case of taking sides, it is a question of performing my duty under the constitution. I have not yet asked the attorney-general as to an opinion as to whom I shall recognize, however, if I am asked to certify any act of William Sulzer as governor, I shall submit the question to the attorney-general and await his formal opinion before taking action."

WHERE SHALL WE GO TO GET IT?

"Don't go! Come right here!"—say the merchants of this town in today's Telegraph and Times.

(Canadian Press)

Wonderful how these two business men anticipate your needs. Right now they are cleaning their August stocks and planning what they shall offer you at Christmas.

The steamers and trains are bringing in your fall attire—planned long ago.

But the important part in the merchant's fall and winter plans is to start with fresh new goods.

He must tell what he has right now. That's why August is the month of unusual retail sales. Better clear shelves and a temporary loss than capital tied up in summer merchandise.

It pays to watch the advertising every day in the year, but it will never pay you better than right now in this month of August.

The time to buy is when the other fellow is anxious to sell and never are the merchants offering better inducements than now. Read and see!
