

CIRCULAR LETTER.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,

WE REJOICE in having been graciously favored with another Anniversary Meeting, in which our minds have been refreshed with the sight of our Brethren, the Elders and Messengers of the Churches, with their Letters, which contain good news. While some are wading through seas of trouble on the account of the hidings of God's face, others are filled with joy and gladness, the Lord having poured out of his Spirit upon them, and sons and daughters are born to God, and our Sion is enlarged. And now beloved in the Lord, we send you a few truths with which our minds are pressed: The watchman is to stand on the walls of the city, and to give warning to the people. We hope that we have been set and are graciously continued on the walls of our spiritual Sion; and though we of ourselves are but empty
