about and, by the roadette, was a woman in a deard condition, with blood-smeared face. She had been picked up by cention-forement Anderson and was soon able to give an account of herself, although suffering from a scale wound and evidently much injured in the left side, usar the hip. Everything that kindness could suggest was done by the train men and passengers—among the latter being Capt. Smith, R. N. R., Mr. W. B. Saswball and the editor of the Anvanus She was lifted and placed as comfortably as possible in the Pullman Car, when her head was bandaged and the bland washed from her face. She said the bland washed from her face, She and demed Ryder. She was on her way to Canaab, some eight miles from the crossing. She Ryder. She was on her way to Canaso, some eight miles from the crossing. She mithes heard nor new the train until it struck her. She expressed herself as being very grateful to the train people for running back for her, but seemed to be under the impression that she was fatally injured. She frequently enquired about the horse, but the asimal seems to have excaped uninjured, as it can away, e-otion foreman anderson having seem it doing so, and it had some instead of towards home. The shock of the collision had evidently steipped the harness off the horse, for the collar was broken apart at the bottom, almost as if set with a knife. The wagen was broken in small pieces, and the general vonder was that Mrc. Eyder had escaped alive. When the train reached Salisbury his was carried to the station and left in the care of Dr. Moore. YOUNG AGAIN.

Do You Wish to Avoid the Infirmities of Old Age? Paine's Celery Compound an Invigorator and Life-Giver for the Old.

Old people seem to grow weaker as the months go by. They are troubled with constipation, flatalence, drowsiness, rheumatism, indigention and heuralgia. They have had one or more of these troubles for years. Their discusses are truy all of nervous origin. Paice's Celery Compound is the world's great specific for all the difficulties that beset old people. Its regulating influence on the liver, bowels and hidneys removes the disorders that old people suffer from. Paine's Celery Compound is recommended by the best medical practitioners as a grand atimelant to the vital powers, productive of appetite, and a wonderful promoter of dispetito.

When you are old, use Paine's Celary Compound; it will strengthen and built you up, and add years of comfort and peace

In the past, multiludes of people, reduced in vitality and strangth, and on the road to becoming life-long invalids, have been made bale, hearty and strong by using nature's great life-giving medicine. See that you get "Paine"," the kind that takes old, people feel young, and that two makes the sick well.

The Glorosater County Teachers' Institute mat in the Grammar School Building, Bath urst, on Thursday last with a gool enrollment. In the absence of President Allain, Mr. Memercan took the chair. In the opening address, Mr. Merserean impressed on the teachers the necessity of being students themselves if they would do the best work as teachers. The Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Campbellton, and Rev. Mr. Harcison being present addressed the meeting.

Mr. Alexander rand a paper on School Recitation. This was discussed by Mr. Doucet, Mr. Branscombe, Mr. Marvereau, Miss Eddy, Miss Mersereau, Miss Clark, Miss Garret, Miss Frazer, Miss Mullins and

and a paper on Mestates in Tosobing.
Among others he noted that teachers made a mistake in heving too lax discipline. It was a mistake to allow whispering. The claim that children could help each other by so doing to a reason why it should not be allowed. of. Branscombe's paper was full of original and saggestive matter. It was discussed by Minist Morsereau, Plant and Mullins. Miss Stout taught a lesson in reading to Grade L. This lesson was discussed by Miss Eddy, Miss Mullin, Miss Mersoreau, Mr. Bransoumbe.

Mrs. Ferguson addressed the Institute on behalf of the W. C. T. U.

Rev. A. F. Thompson and Mr. O. Turgeon were introduced and addressed the meeting. At the morning session on Friday Mr. ersereau read a paper "Some Thoughts in hool Government." The great aim of hool government was to develop self control in the pupils. This was more useful than any other faculty that could be trained n school life. Mr. Mensereau explained how his might be secured. The teacher should what he expects the pupils to be. He said have system, should be energetic, said be vigilant, have firmness of purpose, f control, should have confidence in his self control, should have confidence in his power to teach, should take Educational papers. Mr. Boudreau opened the discussion with a few well-timed remarks. The dis-cussion was continued by Mr. Branscombs, Mr. Grant, Miss Eddy, Mr. Hetherington.

Mr. Bransoombe read a paper on "School Discipline," written by W. L. Allain; also me on the same subject by R. H. Thericult. At the Friday afterators session, a pap "Laber" was read by Mr. McDone at discussed: one on "Composition of Latter III by J. F. Donect. It was moved to be ordress that a com-
