ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 17, 1901.

WELCOME!

As it welcomed his august father, now the king, forty-one years ago, the Loyalist city today welcomes the heir, apparent to the throne of the empire, and the noble woman who shares his life and its great responsibilities. They have come to a community which holds as its most precious heritage the memory of its founders, who followed the flag into the wilderness when that emblem could no longer float over their old homes in the revolted colonies to the south. Through more than a century since, the citizens have been loyal to their traditions, and true sons and daughters of the empire. When, more than once their devotion has been put to the test, most notably at the outbreak of the South African war, the response was instant and conclusive.

The future king and queen therefore stand today among their own people who are bound to them by ties of affectionate personal regard and by all that appeals to the pride and patriotism of a great nation. Indeed that has been the happy lot of the royal tourists throughout their world-round journey—a journey and a pilgrimage unrivaled in human history. The duke has journeyed, not as a conquering hero to receive tribute, but as the prospective ruler of the greatest earthly realm, to receive the heartfelt welcome of widely scattered peoples, cheerily working out a common destiny, with similar institutions, under the British flag.

From all that they have read and learned of the life and character of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, and from the gracious and kindly manner in which they have greeted the people everywhere, the people of St. John have formed a very high estimate of the personal worth and nobility of the royal guests; and this impression has been deepened by the events of today.

To the other distinguished visitors who are with us, and very especially to the veterans who have come from the neighboring republic to pay their respects to the royal pair, the city extends a hearty welcome. May all enjoy their visit, and carry home with them pleasant recollections of the events of these two days.

The members of the South African contingents already know something of St. John enthusiasm, and the citizens who cheered them wildly as they went forth to do battle for the empire are delighted to have them here today, to receive at the hands of the king's son the medals they so bravely won.

To the members of federal and provincial governments, representatives of towns and counties, the visiting militia and the thousands who have poured in from all parts to participate in the festivities of the time, the city extends a hearty greeting. The occasion is one for rejoicing, and the Star is confident that whatever of inconvenience may arise from the crowded conditions incidental to so great an assemblage of people will be borne with unflinching good nature, alike by visitors and citizens.

The great question that is at present agitating the minds of ex-President Kruger's advisers is where they shall decide to send him for the winter, as they are of the opinion that the severe Holland winter would be too much for one used to the mild African climate, and whose health is very delicate. Mr. Kruger announces the fact that he will remain where he is, and that is probably what will happen.

Says the Hartford Courant:—"A great silence has fallen over the Buffalo assembly, and this silence should remain unbroken to the end. The New York officers concerned have precisely this idea, and it is greatly to their credit. Both State Superintendent of Prisons Collins, at Albany, and the warden of the prison at Auburn, have issued orders to this effect."

The people of Troy, New York, are vigorously objecting about the food of Canadian coin which has crossed the border, owing to the Pan-American visitors. To return it would be a easy solution of the difficulty.

A proposal has been made and adopted in Hamilton, Ontario, to start cooking classes in connection with the principal public schools.

OFF FOR HOME.
NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—George L. Watson, designer of Shamrock II, Thomas Halsey, the mill maker, and the Hon. Mrs. Alice Keppel, who was a guest of Mr. Thomas Lipton during the yacht race, sailed for home on the steamer Oceanic today. The crew of Shamrock II, except Captain Sycamore, also sailed for home on the St. Louis today.

H. R. H. DUKE OF CORNWALL AND YORK.

THE ADDRESSES.

ST. JOHN CITY.
To His Royal Highness George Frederick Ernest Albert, Duke of Cornwall and York, Duke of Rothesay, Prince of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, and Duke of Saxony; Earl of Carrick and Inverness, Baron of Renfrew and Killarney, Lord of the Isles and Great Steward of Scotland, K. G., G. C. B., K. T., G. C. M. G., G. C. V. O., LL. D., D. C. L., etc., etc.
May it please Your Royal Highness:—The City of Saint John, which, in its infancy, more than a century ago, received the Duke of Kent, an ancestor of your Royal Highness, which nearly half a century ago greeted his present majesty, the King, and which has on several other occasions been honored by visits from members of the royal family, today extends a hearty and loyal welcome to your Royal Highness and your distinguished consort, K. G., G. C. B., K. T., G. C. M. G., G. C. V. O., LL. D., D. C. L., etc., etc.

The mayor and aldermen of the city, on behalf of the citizens, desire to welcome your Royal Highness to this portion of the Dominion. Notwithstanding the fact that our city is one of the most remote of Eastern Canada, it is filled with the British loyalty which has upheld the British flag in every quarter of the globe, and which peopled this land originally with a hardy and energetic population, devoted to the British Empire. You will find in our community, living side by side in the utmost concord, emulating and vying with each other in fealty to the British crown and constitution, and in their desire to advance the interests and to preserve the unity of the Empire.

Finally, we pray that the blessing of Divine Providence may rest on both of you as fully as it did on our late most gracious and Royal Sovereign, Queen Victoria, and that you may have a long and happy life, and in course of time assume the sceptre of sovereignty over a prosperous, tranquil and united Empire.

ST. JOHN COUNTY.
To His Royal Highness, George Frederick Ernest Albert, Duke of Cornwall and York, Duke of Rothesay, Prince of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha and Duke of Saxony; Earl of Carrick and Inverness, Baron of Renfrew and Killarney, Lord of the Isles and Great Steward of Scotland, K. G., G. C. B., K. T., G. C. M. G., G. C. V. O., LL. D., D. C. L., etc., etc.
We, the warden and councillors of the municipality of the City and County of Saint John, in the Province of New Brunswick, desire to extend to your Royal Highness and the Duchess of Cornwall and York a most cordial welcome on your visit to our shire-town.

We are well aware that this visit is due to the approval with which His Majesty the King regards the determination of all his colonial subjects that no sacrifice can be too great which is required to preserve the unity and integrity of the empire. During the greater part of the century which has just passed away we have enjoyed the blessings of peace under the beneficial sway of the sovereignty of Great Britain.

Protected from external violence by the power and prestige of the mother land, the North American colonies have been enabled to consolidate their government and extend their territory from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean. The most potent factor in this development already considerable, and to which in the opinion of the most competent observers it is difficult to set a limit, is that loyalty in the heart and understanding of the people which has been defined to be a national devotion to the guardian of the laws.

The presence of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cornwall and York adds to the joy of all classes of our population on this auspicious occasion. This day will always be associated in our minds with a memorable event which took place forty-one years ago, the landing on our shores of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, now His Majesty the King.

The journey of your Royal Highness and your illustrious consort, which has been prosperous in its course, may be equally fortunate in its conclusion, and that it may inspire a deeper and that sense of a common nationality which prevails throughout the British dominions beyond the seas, where the flag of the empire floats as the symbol of well ordered liberty and law.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.
MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—Some time ago the nine year old son of F. R. Mitchell of this city was injured in a railway accident, in order that the raw wounds might be skinned over, his sister, Mathilda, seventeen years of age, offered herself as a subject, and today at the general hospital, sixty square inches of cuticle was removed from her body and grafted upon her brother's body. The operation was one of the most extensive ever performed.

LADY GOLFEES.
MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—Miss Thomson of St. John will play Miss Young of Montreal tomorrow for the ladies' golf championship of Canada. This morning's contest in the semi-finals between Miss Thomson and Miss Marjorie of Montreal, was the most interesting of the tournament. Miss Thomson only winning out after two extra holes had been played, defeating Miss Marjorie after that lady had once had victory within her hand.

SUIT OVER RAILWAY CONTRACT.
MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—A suit was entered by Ryan and MacDonnell, railway contractors, against Mackenzie, Mann & Co., and Donald D. Mann, personally, for the sum of $185,154.97. In July, 1899, Ryan and MacDonnell took over a contract which Messrs. Mackenzie, Mann & Co. had received from the government of Nova Scotia for the building of the Inverness and Richmond railway in Cape Breton. If the work was not finished by December, 1900, the defendants were to take over the plant and continue the work. This they did. The plaintiffs allege that they were not able to carry out the contract because of delays caused by defendants.

Doctors Order It.
Doctors see at once the advantage of taking a medicine right to the part that is sick. You see the doctor orders his own medicines for the disease, and has his patient use Vapo-Cresoleine at the same time. It destroys all germs of diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, and other contagious diseases; and there is no remedy its equal for croup, sore throat and hard colds. You now see why it often cures whooping-cough in a few days.

Vapo-Cresoleine is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresoleine outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lotion, which should last a lifetime, and a box of Cresoleine, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresoleine and Lotion, 50c. Get your outfit from the only wholesale and retail dealers in Canada, Geo. A. Peckham & Co., 150 St. John St., New York, U.S.A.
