POLICE COURT.

Troubled Inmates of the Mansion of Aching Hearts.

There was a hot time in the old town last night and jags were abundant. Several of the police officers remarked this morning that the only drunken persons they saw came from Carleton, but the police were astray. There were a few others. Most of those people who chose to celebrate by liquid refreshments were so jolly that they did not cause any trouble and the police only made four arrests.

Harvey Stackhouse had commenced rather early and was arrested on St. John street between six and seven o'clock. He pleaded guilty to being drunk and was fined four dollars.

William McNamee got as far as the top of the hill on Wright street, but could not go any further. He gave his destination as the house of lords and had evidently just come from some house of commons. Officer Semple took him to the mansion of aching hearts on Main street, and this morning William admitted that he had been hitting things up. The usual four.

Morris Martine is a Frenchman and was picked up on King square at an early hour this morning. He said that something had struck him and judging from the diffused appearance of the prisoner's face no person seemed to doubt his statement. He was fined four dollars for being drunk and the magistrate ordered that enquiry be made regarding a watch and pocketbook which Martine claimed to have lost.

John Stewart from P. E. Island, who has been working in Calais, is on his way home to see his sick wife. He was short of cash and went into an outhouse in Carleton to spend the night. Sergt. Ross found him there and took him to the lockup. This morning he was discharged.

The case against Kileen and Briggs, alias Smith, was before the police court this morning. A. M. Rowan, Wm. E. Thomson and John T. Maynes gave evidence identifying a number of articles produced including shot guns, electric lamps, canned salmon, sardines, fishing rods and a pair of scissors. The further hearing was set down for Friday. J. B. M. Baxter appeared for the defence.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Patrick Gleeson Passed Away Early This Morning.

An Interesting Sketch of the Life of This Worthy Citizen.

The death of Patrick Gleeson removes a man who for over half a century was engaged in active life in this city, in close touch with the people, and respected by them all. Mr. Gleeson came to this province from County Kerry when a boy, and had attained the age of 79 years. Until within the last year he was about town engaged in his usual avocations, apparently good for many years of life. A severe attack of grippe, and later an accidental fall, hastened his end.

The following biographical sketch of the late Mr. Gleeson is from the Freeman of March 17th, 1900:—

"Mr. Gleeson was born in the parish of Aglish, between Killarney and Tralee, county of Kerry, and came to St. John with his parents in 1846. Educated in the parish schools of the time, he started to make his way in life as a clerk for Edwin Ketchum, on the North wharf. In 1872 he became a member of the firm of Estabrooks & Gleeson, on the South wharf, and this firm continued in business until the fire of 1877, after which it was dissolved.

In 1879, Mr. Gleeson entered upon an important and responsible work in which he has since been engaged, in connection with other duties, the collections and supervision of other temporal matters pertaining to His Lordship Bishop Sweeney and the cathedral. The collections of rents, the renting of pews and the general collection of him by the presentation of a him under the Bishop's direction, and it is needless to say the work has been done faithfully and well.

"In 1880 Mr. Gleeson became collector of rentals, etc., of the city corporation, which position he still holds. His face is familiar to everybody, and while he is one of the best known men in St. John today, he is equally one of those most held in general regard. In the nature of his civic duties he is necessarily brought into contact with all classes of citizens, and very largely with those differing from him in religious belief, but he has invariably borne himself so as to win friends and antagonize none in whatever work he has been engaged.

"Mr. Gleeson was an active member of Emerald No. 4, engine company in the old volunteer fire department, holding membership from 1854 until 1864, when the company was disbanded. From 1858 until the close he was secretary of the company, and a handsome easy chair presented to him on his retirement shows the esteem in which he was held.

"A life-long total abstainer, he became secretary of the St. Malachi's Total Abstinence Society when that body was organized by Father Connolly, in 1858, and he continued in that capacity until 1880. On his retirement the members testified their appreciation of him by the presentation of a gold watch. He was president of the society from 1883 to 1888, and he is now in this third year of being president for the second time.

"In the days of the old Irish Friendly Society Mr. Gleeson was an active member, and when the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society rose out of the ashes of the former organization, he became one of the most zealous workers. He was president during the terms of 1889-90, and later was financial secretary. When in the latter capacity, in 1894, he was presented with a gold-headed cane. He has now been president since 1897, and last Christmas his fellow-members showed a slight recognition of the good work he had done by presenting him with a gold chain and charm, suitably inscribed.

"Mr. Gleeson was appointed one of her majesty's justices of the peace for the city and county of St. John in 1871, and in 1877 he was appointed a member of the Slaughter House Commission. He bears all his honors meekly, and he has made governor tomorrow he would still be the same frank and unassuming 'Squire Gleeson.'

"There being now no St. Patrick's Society in St. John, Mr. Gleeson has always contended that the Irish Literary should be held to take the place of one in public functions. This point has been disputed by the St. George's Society, on the ground that for a society to be ranked as national there should be no religious qualification. The St. Andrew's Society, however, raises no such objection, and President Gleeson is always invited to the St. Andrew's day banquet, the compliment being returned to the president of the Scotch Society at the St. Patrick's day dinner. Mr. Gleeson's speech, abounding with true Irish wit, is welcomed on both of these occasions."

The late Mr. Gleeson is survived by his wife and four sons and two daughters. The sons are David J. of Ottawa, formerly of the St. John customs; P. J. of Quebec; Wm. L. of Boston and John P. Gleeson of this city. The daughters are Eugenea, a teacher in the Golden Grove school, and Mary at home.

Among the older citizens of St. John who were associated with him in so many ways in the years gone by, the death of this gentle natured and warm hearted man will be universally regretted.

LAST NIGHT'S CELEBRATION.
The city emptied itself into the streets last evening to join the militiamen in celebrating the return of peace. Until a late hour the demonstration was kept up with enthusiasm, and everybody had a good time.

THE SUMMER MAILES.

The Loss of Time Occurs on the "People's Railway."

The new summer timetable has been practically arranged and the people of Prince Edward Island will get their mail forty-five minutes earlier than last year. The following statement shows the comparative changes made in the running. The adoption of Atlantic standard instead of Eastern makes the time of arrival here seemingly the same as it was last year, while in reality an hour is saved.

	1901.	1902.
Boston, arr. . . . .	11.20 a.m.	11.20 a.m.
Montreal, arr. . . . .	11.35 a.m.	11.35 a.m.
C. P. R., dep. . . . .	11.50 a.m.	12.00 p.m.
C. P. R., arr. Point du Chene. . . . .	3.30 p.m.	3.45 p.m.

Steamer, due to leave. . . . . 3.45 p.m. 4.00 p.m.
Steamer, arr. S. side 4.15 p.m. 4.30 p.m.
Express left S. side 4.30 p.m. 4.45 p.m.
Express arr. C. town 5.45 p.m. 6.00 p.m.

From this it will be seen that the C. P. R. bring their trains here from Boston and Montreal just one hour earlier than last year. Half of this time will be made up by the American roads and the other half from Vancoboro to St. John. In order that the Island people might have a better service than last season, it was believed that the I. C. R. would assist to the extent of making up at least twenty minutes between St. John and Moncton. Instead of doing this, they waste fifteen minutes of the hour gained by the other lines by holding the train in St. John for ten minutes longer than last year, and by losing another five minutes in the running time.

The management of the P. E. I. Ry. allowed three hours from the time the train arrived at Pt. du Chene until the express left Summerside for Charlottetown. This was made up by fifteen minutes at each side for transfer and two and a half hours for the trip over, and it was found that this was not long enough. As a consequence, the Island railway decided to have their train leave Summerside three hours and twenty minutes after the C. P. R. arrived at the Point. By agreement with the Charlottetown Steam Navigation Co. this plan was not carried out, and the train will leave as it did last year.

Under the proposed new timetable mails will be received in Charlottetown when on time, forty-five minutes earlier than last year, instead of one and a half hours earlier, as it was hoped might have been the case.

The running records for the first twenty days of May, 1901, show that the Boston express was late twice in reaching St. John. The Montreal was late three times. The C. P. R. run by the I. C. R. the six times late in leaving here and late on every day in reaching Moncton. The tabulated report shows that by far the greatest loss of time was due to slow running of the C. P. R. train on the I. C. R. from St. John to Moncton and in the transfer at Paines Junction.

SUSPECTED DROWNING.

Feared That a Man Was Lost in the Falls Today.

There is considerable uncertainty in regard to the fate of a man who attempted to row down through the falls about nine o'clock this morning. The tide at that time was running up stream, and the boatman was seen by a number of people rowing down towards a couple of logs.

Some time afterwards an empty boat was noticed in an eddy between Prospect Point and Cushing's mill. People on the bridge declared that at the same time they saw a man struggling in the water, but the bridge keeper who was notified was unable to see any trace of a man struggling. Employees at the mill saw the empty boat but did not see the man. The boat is an ordinary fisherman's craft.

It will be extended into the main building and will afford ample accommodation for all who may desire to obtain meals. An office is also being fitted up in the main building for F. W. Hodgson, dominion live stock commissioner, who will be present during the entire exhibition. At present he is assisting the association to secure the most competent judges available.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Peck took place this afternoon from her former home on Sheriff street. Interment was at Cedar Hill. Rev. Alex. White conducted the services and there were no pallbearers.

Mrs. Martin Burns, of 282 Duke street, has received a souvenir from Cape Town that will be very highly prized. It is a marine picture, showing the troopship Manhattan, on which her son, Martin J. Burns, went to South Africa. The frame is in the form of a life belt, the picture being round. The picture of the steamer is a very fine piece of artistic work, executed in England, and will be a very handsome ornament on the parlor wall.
