Bill for the Creation of a Department of Mines Will Be Introduced at Next Session of Parliament — Pickford and Black Contract Renewed — Grand Trunk Pacific Affairs — To Attend Funeral Late Walter Barwick

OTTAWA, July 18.—The administration of the geological branches and the mines has been transferred from Hon.

Mr. Oliver, minister of the interior, to Mr. Allegements.

Way wreck, will be Hon. A. B. Aylestonia, and Dr. Coulter, deputy postmaster general. They left tonight for Toronto. Mr. Barwick was a law partner of Mr. Aylesworth.

WANTED—Position as Bookkeeper, office work or clerking. Books posted, accounts made out and collected. Terms reasonable. Send a card to GEO. D. HUNTER, 29 High street, St. John, North End. Hon. Mr. Templeman, minister of inland revenue, and the cabinet representative of the great mining province of British Columbia. The transfer has been made by order in council. It was understood, when Mr. Templeman was given a portfolio, last year, that British Columbia's importance would be further recognized by the creation of a department of mines of which the geological branch would form the basis and of which Mr. Templeman would be made the head. A government bill for the creation of the Grand Trunk Pacifich has been thought well to give Mr. Templeman the administration of mines will be introduced at the next session, an act of parliament being required for the purpose. In the meantime it has been thought well to give Mr. Templeman the administration of the existing geological and mines branches that he may become familiar with the existing machinery and be in a better position to organize the mining department as soon as the necessary legislation has been secured.

Among those who will attend the farant Trunk Pacific has been seen safe the Grand Trunk Pacific has been seen safe. The road will cross the Saskatchewan River at Clover Bar, some miles from Edmonton, and proceed to that city along the western bank of the river. The people of Strathcona, which is directly across the river from Edmonton, have been pressing to have the crossing made there. Dr. McInterior Toolet Specialist. Hours: 10 to 1; 2 to 5. Consultation free.

Schreiber of the railway department, and they show physical obstacles to making the crossing at Strathcona, The government has, therefore, agreed to the Clover Bar crossing.

The government has renewed for four years from July 1, the contract for the Canadian-West Indian steamship service, with Pickford and Black of Hallfax. There is to be a sailing the contract for the canadian steamship service, with Pickford and Black of Hallfax. of minor chiefs of the Guatemalan revolution, who made an invasion of the northern portion of that republic, have arrived here and say all movements of the revolutionists in Guatemala are brought to a temporary standstill awaiting negotiations for peace between Salvador and Guatemala. The revolutionists allege crueities, executions, forced loans and general despotic conduct on President Cabrera's part. Salvador, it is affirmed, will never consent to making terms with Cabrera, her bitter enemy.

It is said that there is likely soon to be another revolutionary movement begun in Guatemala supplementing the present one.

Mexico continues her policy of strict observance of the neutrality. Officials here have received news that the Salvador army and revolutionists under command of Gen. Toledo, have the Guatemalan army surrounded at Juti
