Tells a Woman How to Dress Her Child Fifteen Year Old Girl on Trial

for Theft

In the police court this morning Vin-ent Robisand drunk on Sydney treet was fined four dollars or ten days in jail, and Herman Warner, for being drunk on Sheffield street was allowed to go. He is a jolly German and said that he went to the street looking for a gentleman friend and

The case of theft against Mabel Cameron was taken up. Clara Mc-Carthy, of 52 Brussels street, testified that Mabel Cameron met her at Mr. Coopers house on Sewell street about three weeks ago. They occupied the same room and when the Cameron girl left the house witness missed a watch and chain and a slik waist.

Mrs. Elizabeth McAfee, mother of the McCarthy of Rocher.

Dr. Daniel Pugsley and Mrs. Pugsley of Rothesay, left last night on a trip of some weeks through the Canadian west.

Miss Florence C. Estabrooks, daughter of Captain Estabrooks, who won high honors last year at McGill, left for Montreal last night to resume her studies. left the house witness missed a watch and chain and a silk waist.

Mrs. Elizabeth McAfee, mother of the McCarthy girl, said that the girl is the daughter of the late poet John Callihan McCarthy, and that the watch chain and waist were worth $3.90.

Detective Killen testified that he found the prisoner in a Mill street house. She denied at first that she had stolen the articles, but later acknowledged the theft and told witness where the things were. The waist was found in a Brussels street house and the watch and bracelet with Edward Ogler. The girl said that Ogler had taken the jewellry from her. She said she was sorry for what she had done. She is but fifteen years of age, and in all probability she will be given her liberty if a home with some family and in all probability she will be given her liberty if a home with some family can be secured for her. Mrs. McAfee was given some advice-by the magistrate not to decorate her little daughter with bright, gaudy second-hand waists and cheap jewellery, as it is unbecoming on a little girl and makes them look conspicuous.

and it will not be with regret when they collect the fares on the last trip tonight.

Monday commenced the Waterloo of the conductors and from then until the end of the week the cars were crowded with city folk and their "country cousins." The country people were great on asking questions, and as soon as one got through, another would commence. "Say conductor, how far is it from where the Springfield lands, to the exhibition?" "Is the fare five or ten cents, conductor?" "Oh! conductor, tell us when we're there."

A steady outpour of these questions would continue all day, and the poor
