

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

(CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.)

ceremony the newly married couple left by the 11 o'clock train for Boston and New York. On their return they will reside at St. Martins.

Many handsome presents were received by the bride, including the following:

Groom, silver water pitcher.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Floyd, silver pickle jar.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Stammers, piano lamp.

Mr. Grover, silver sugar bowl and spoon holder.

Rev. J. E. and Mrs. Hopper, sterling silver salver.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, fruit knives.

Messrs. Burpee, Thorne & Co., silver fruit dish.

Mr. J. A. S. Mott, set individual salts.

Miss Alice M. Hoben, St. Mary's, satin dress table scarf.

Mrs. J. J. Wallace and daughter, Truro; silver fruit basket.

Mr. J. P. Mott, musical box.

Mr. E. S. Gifford, individual breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Titus, St. Martins; tea caddy.

Dr. Geo. Hetherington, silver brush broom.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mott, silver berry dish.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. King, silver salad dish.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dykeman, Windsor, N.S.; individual salts.

Miss Lila Williams, silver card receiver.

Mr. C. Allan, silver sugar and spoon holder.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McNally, Fredericton, silver cake basket.

Mr. C. R. McNally, Fredericton, silver fruit basket.

Miss Ada Thompson silver match safe.

The Messrs. Estabrooks, hand painted china silk sofa pillow.

Mr. D. Henry Miller, Mystic, Conn.; U. S. A. book, "Bridal Days."

Rev. W. J. and Mrs. Stewart, individual salts.

Mrs. J. Titus, nut crackers and pickers.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Wier, St. Martins, pepper and salts.

Mrs. W. A. Quinton, fish knife and fork.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert and Warrice Titus, silver salver.

Mr. J. J. Wallace, of Truro, oak and oxidized silver album.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peters and Miss Peters, silver jewel case.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. White, silver scallop dish.

Miss May Titus, silver pickle dish.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Faxon, of Truro, ornamental flower basket.

Mr. Gidding, ornamental candle sticks.

Mr. and Mrs. and the Messrs. Elliott, fruit dish.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vaughan, (St. Martins) flower eggs.

Mrs. Harriet Alward, silver bonbonniere.

Miss Bessie Swann, who has been spending several weeks with friends in Boston, has returned to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Kain returned home from their wedding tour this week, and will reside at 121 King street, east. Mr. Kain will receive Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Alice McCoy had a delightful fishing excursion on Tuesday for a few of her young friends at Mills Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McArthur and Mrs. P. McGrath, of Quincy, Mass., who have been the guests of Mrs. T. J. Cronin, Elliot Row, returned home on Monday last by the American boat.

Miss Annie Ferguson left by steamer Cumberland on Monday to visit friends at Somerville.

Mrs. Brockington, of New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. A. Griffith, Leinster street, and Mrs. J. Balcome, of Lawrence, N. S., will spend this week with her mother, Mrs. Griffiths.

Mrs. A. Vanwart, of New Brunswick, Quebec county, returned home this week, after spending the past two weeks with Mrs. D. Belyea.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Barbour, Miss Barbour, Miss Puddington, Miss Fawcett, Miss H. M. McKeown, A. Barbour, V. McLellan, and C. H. Ferguson are summering at the Fowler House, Lakeside. They have chartered a "the Jugglers," and are enjoying themselves.

Mrs. Chas. Strong and Mrs. Chas. Dearborn left this week for Ottawa to attend the C. C. W. B. M. and W. C. T. U. dominion convention after which Mrs. Dearborn takes an extended tour through the states.

Miss Ollie Smith of Jamaica Plains, Boston, Mass., will spend the summer months with her aunt, the Messrs. Sullivan, Leinster street.

Mrs. Tattle of Eastport, is visiting Mrs. C. C. Barbour on Richmond street.

Miss Minnie Clark returned last week from Boston where she spent the winter.

Mrs. Frank Merritt will receive at 77 Duke street on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Superintendent Van Zile and family are at their home, Mount Pleasant, and will be in the city on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Van Zile is here for the vacation from Moulton college, Toronto. Miss Van Zile will remain about two months in the city.

On Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr. John Mahoney, St. Ezek street, Mr. and Mrs. May Mahoney and Mr. Edward E. Evans were united in marriage by the Rev. G. M. Campbell. The bride was attended by Miss Lizette Patterson and the groom by Mr. W. G. Kee. The bride wore a pretty costume of cream colored tulle, with a white silk and gold ornaments and bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore steel blue cloth trimmed with pink silk, fish scale pink jewelry, pink roses. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, among them a silver clock, Mr. and Mrs. A. Evans, marble clock; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cox, silver butter cooler; Miss Lizette Patterson, dinner caddy; Messrs. Sheraton & Kinneer, dinner caddy; Mr. and Mrs. Seilridge, silver cake basket; Mr. and Mrs. G. Thompson, hanging lamp; Mr. W. G. Kee, breakfast caddy; Mr. and Mrs. A. Miller, silver spoon holder; Mrs. James Mahoney, bronze statue; Miss Katie Cummings, fancy pin cushion; Mr. Jas. And Miss Moulton, pickle dish; Mr. Fred and Miss Maud Mahoney, set napkin rings; Mr. J. Balcome, Lawrence, N. S., fruit dish; Mr. Robert H. Derrall, Boston, set napkin rings; Mr. Miller, sugar spoon; Mr. W. B. Drake, dozen tea spoons, and butter knife; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Raymond, set silver salts; Mrs. Brockington, New York, hand painted fan; Mrs. Alexander Evans, table cover; Mrs. L. A. Griffith, set napkins; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. DeBelmont, Indiana, hand painted picture; Mr. and Mrs. Edgerton, rocking chair; Miss Nellie Patterson, hand painted banner; Mrs. Annie F. Thompson, sugar spoons; and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans will reside on Sydney street.

ST. JOHN-NORTH.

Miss Carrie Holly returned home last week, after spending several weeks with her sister Mrs. Swinerton, Everett, Mass. She was accompanied to St. John by Mrs. Swinerton, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. James Holly.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are guests of Mrs. Samuel Vaughan. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor recently moved from Halifax to Bridgetown, N. S., where Mr. Taylor will open a drug store.

Miss Mabel Smith spent several days at Musquash last week, as guest of her aunt, Miss Maggie Smith.

Mr. Arthur Hillyard, of New York, is visiting his home.

Messrs. Hilyard, Shaw and Keltie, spent a few days last week at Carleton Place, Ontario.

Messrs. J. S. Purdy and A. G. Vanwart left on Tuesday for their lake, their friends calculate they caught the storm on the way out.

The sudden death of Mr. Edward Elliot last week was a great loss to his family and friends. He had been well apparently until a short time previous to his death. He was well known and greatly esteemed by all his acquaintances. During his lifetime he was the means of saving many persons from drowning. He was a kind, gentle, and sympathetic man, who had the hearty sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Miss Dolney, Douglas Ave., one of the popular St. John hospital nurses, is home for a few days' rest.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.]

June 15.—St. Paul's Presbyterian church was this evening, the scene of a very happy event when Mr. A. Fowle, instructor in the infant school, was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Martin. Rev. Mr. Macdonald performed the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome gown of mahogany-colored satin, en train, and carried a beautiful bouquet of cream roses. She was attended by Miss Hughes, who was attired in a steel-colored silk with chiffon trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was ably supported by Mr. A. A. S. Mott, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The ceremony was attended by a large number of friends, and the wedding party was a most successful one.

On Wednesday next, Rev. Mr. Weddall and Messrs. C. H. Fisher and Martin Lemont, leave for Charlottetown to attend the Methodist conference. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Lemont and Mrs. Fisher.

Mrs. Tweedie of Chatham, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Murray.

Miss Gannon of St. Stephen, is this week the guest of Mr. Porter, Brunswick street.

Mr. Chas. McNally is graduated and has returned from St. Martins seminary.

Miss Addie George, of St. John, spent Sunday here at her father's residence, "Sunnyvale."

Rev. H. M. Spivey is in St. John last week.

Mrs. Parkin and Mr. C. H. Dunn, of St. John, spent Sunday at Dunville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Goddard and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Palmer are boarding at Mrs. Langstroth's.

The matrimonial market on the North side seems to be booming. The engagement of a junior member of a manufacturing firm doing business near Montreal, who has been visiting in St. John, is a proper matter. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Rev. Mr. Burns, of Ontario, preached to and made a very favorable impression on large congregations in the Episcopal churches on Sunday.

The reverend gentleman was parish priest of this place some years ago. His remains were taken to Montreal for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

HAMPTON.

[Progress is for sale in Hampton station by T. G. Barnes and Geo. E. Frost, and at Hampton village by Messrs. A. & W. Hicks.]

June 15.—Miss Minnie Hammond is visiting in St. John.

Miss Peters went to St. John on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ernest Fairweather, of St. John, were in Hampton last Thursday.

Postoffice Inspector King and Mrs. King were also here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident intention of celebrating the occasion in a proper manner. A very pleasant evening was spent by all who were fortunate enough to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbell, of St. John, are boarding at Miss Cochran's.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley gave them a pleasant surprise on the evening of the anniversary of their wedding day by appearing armed with baskets of good things and an evident