Cards of invitation were issued yesterday by Mrs. Henry McAllister and Miss Alice Todd, for an "evening" at the residence of Miss Todd on Friday afternoon from three to six o'clock.

Mrs. Frank Woods, and Miss Charlotte Young entertained a large party of lady friends at five o'clock tea on Saturday afternoon. The drawing room and dining room were most tastefully decorated with roses and carnations. Dainty refreshments were served by several young lady friends. There were about fifty guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Jones gave a delightful tea party last evening in honor of Mrs. Wickwire who is Mrs. Charles Watson's guest.

Mrs. E. C. Young and Mrs. Frank F. Woods gave invitations to a reception at their home tomorrow afternoon from four until six o'clock. These ladies have such a charming way of entertaining, that much pleasure is anticipated by those who are invited.

The "Travelers' Club" met with Mrs. Willard B. King on Monday afternoon. This week the city of Toronto was visited, a most interesting paper was read by Mrs. Millican Black, on the founding of the city of Toronto in 1794, by Governor Simcoe, until many interesting incidents down to the present day. Mrs. John Prescott, Mr. J. Clarke, Taylor, Mr. W. B. King, and Mrs. E. C. Young, also read interesting and original descriptions of Toronto, filled with reminiscences of pleasant visits in that delightful city. Then followed an animated discussion and comparison of notes. All the ladies present. This club promises to be the most instructive and enjoyable of the many organized clubs in Calais.

The "Neighborhood club" were the guests of Mrs. Edwin B. Todd on Tuesday evening.

The "Harmony" club met on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Carrie Barker. The musical program this week was devoted to Wagner and Abt. W. Grimmer who most charmingly sang a solo.

The "Etude" of which Miss Jessie Campbell Whitlock is musical director, enjoyed a pleasant evening in Ode Follies Hall one evening last week. The following programme was given: Reading, "biography and musical compositions of Joseph Verdi," Miss Alice Bates, piano duet, "I, I, I, I, I," Miss Berta Teed and Miss Whitlock, reading, "The Travellers," Miss Helen Ryden, piano duet, "The Vireo," Whistler and Miss Whitlock, read "The Boys of Westminster" and St. Paul's" Miss Fortia Duxton.

Abraham Lincoln's birthday is to be celebrated in Calais this year. A ladies reception and banquet is to be enjoyed at the St. Croix Exchange, while at the same time the young society gentlemen of the city partake of a sumptuous banquet at the American House.

Miss Nellie Kimball has gone to New York and will be several weeks the guest of Mrs. Bradlee Eaton.

Mrs. A. E. Neil has returned from a visit in Bangor, Maine where she was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Engel.

Mrs. Rodney Woodman of Boston was summoned to Calais last week to visit her mother who is very ill.

The ladies of the "Harmony" club intend to give an "At Home" at the Windsor hotel, in the evening of Feb. 27th, society anticipates much pleasure from this entertainment which promises to be a most brilliant affair.

A child's ball is to be given by Miss Mattie Harbo, early in March, at the close of her dancing class. This ball is an annual occurrence, and is always looked forward to by society on both sides of the St. Croix, with most pleasant anticipations that are always fulfilled.

Miss Louise Taylor has arranged to give one of her delightful concerts on the evening of March third. She will be assisted by Mrs. C. W. Harrison of Grimsby, Ontario, who is a favorite with St. Croix audiences, having sang here before in Miss Taylor's concerts. It will probably be a long time before Mrs. Harrison will again be in St. Stephen, as she leaves in March for Paris, and France to study music with a famous teacher in that gay city. Mrs. Harrison and Miss Taylor will visit Fredericton on the fifth of March and give a concert in that city.

THINGS OF VALUE.
Starfish have caused immense damage among the Connecticut oyster beds this season. One grower has spent $5,000 in the last few months in an effort to check the ravages of the starfish, but with no perceptible result.

Why suffer from weak nerves, want of appetite, and general debility, telling the loss of sleep and restlessness of the system, and this the blood when such a really meritorious remedy as Nourish & Lyman's Quinine Pills may be had at any drug store. This article is recommended by the highest members of the medical faculty in cases of indigestion, general debility, loss of appetite, and nervous affections of all kinds. It is also especially beneficial to children, delicate female and to business men, students and to those who have much brain work.

We would say, "Never be without it." It will cure you and to those who are in regular work, and enable you to successfully grapple with the work you have to do. This pleasant to the taste and pleasant looking medicine is the most delicate and reliable. Remember to ask for Quinine Wine, prepared by Nourish & Lyman, Toronto, and we are sure you will be satisfied that you have full value of your money. Drugist sell it.

The Chesapeake oyster beds are rapidly diminishing in productivity. Fifteen years ago they furnished about 10,000,000 bushels of oysters. The product this year will not be more than 1,000,000 bushels.

"Bacteria do not occur in the blood or in the tissues of a healthy living body, either of man or of lower animals." So says the celebrated Dr. Koch. Other doctors say that the best medicine to render the blood perfectly pure and healthy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Probably the oldest railroad engineer in New England is the famous Wilcox of Louisville, Va. He has been running an engine on the Boston and Maine system since 1852, and is still making a daily run.

Much of life's misery is due to indigestion; for who can be happy with a pain in his stomach? As a corrective and strengthen of the alimentary organs, Ayer's Pills are invaluable, their use being always attended with marked benefit.

A woman's rights club has been organized in St. Joseph, Mo., and arrangements have been made to put in a billiard table and a woman barber.

Dandruff is an eruption from the press of the skin that spreads and dries, forming scurf and causing the hair to fall out. Hall's Hair Renewer cures it.

"In honor of a young lady visiting the town," a very successful dog fight was given in Swampville, Ky., the other day, according to a local paper.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, greenery or diarrhoea, and to avoid such great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking and green fruits are sure to bring on the attack. Such persons would recommend Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial as being the best medicine for cholera, greenery, and cholera. In a few days are taken in water when the symptoms are added no further trouble will be experienced.

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

The Household.

Well-Known Editor's Testimony.

I cannot speak too strongly of the excellence of MINARD'S LINIMENT as a pain reliever. I have used it myself for rheumatism with beneficial results and have recommended it to my friends. It is the REMEDY IN MY HOUSEHOLD.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

CURES DYSPEPSIA, BAD BLOOD, CONSTIPATION, KIDNEY TROUBLES, HEADACHE, BILIOUSNESS.

B.B.B. unlocks all the secretions and removes all impurities from the system from a common simple to the most scrupulous sors.

BURDOCK PILLS act gently yet thoroughly on the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

THE BEST OF THREADS IS CLAPPERTON'S

At least those who have used it say so.

The oldest man in Indiana, James H. Culver of Spencer, died last Sunday at the age of 105 years and almost eleven months. He was born in Maryland, March 4, 1790, and went West in 1818. He was married four times, and had two great-grandchildren living at the time of his death.

Mrs. Celeste Con, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "For years I could not eat many kinds of food without producing a burning, excruciating pain in my stomach. I took Parole's Pills according to direction under the head of 'Dyspepsia or Indigestion.' One box entirely cured me. I can now eat anything I choose, without distressing me in the least. These Pills do not cause pain or griping, and should be used when a cathartic is required."

Thirty-nine years ago, a lad named Edwards started out from his home in Winchester, Ky., to go fishing. Last week he came back, with the same shippo over his shoulder that he started out with, but without any fish. He had never been seen or heard of by his friends during the interval.

Sleeplessness is due to nervous excitement: The delicately constituted, the financier, the business man, and those whose occupation necessitates great mental strain or worry, all suffer less or more from it. Sleep is the great restorer for a worried brain, and to get sleep classes the domestic from all its troubles with a few doses of Parole's Vegetable Pills, gelatine coated, containing no mercury, and are guaranteed to give satisfaction or the money will be refunded.

A Levittown, Me., man found a gold ring in the street the other day. When he got home he showed it to his wife, and she said she had seen it somewhere. He then showed it to his neighbors, and they all said they had seen it somewhere. The ring the husband found proved to be the one his wife had lost.

Unequaled—Mr. Theo. Brunt, Tyndham, Ont., writes:—"I have to thank you for recommending Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. I was troubled with them for nearly fifteen years, and tried almost everything I could hear of, but it was no use. I was very much relieved, but some would effect a cure. I have now been free from the distressing complaint for nearly eighteen months. I hope you will continue to recommend it."
