HOW TO ENTER

By sending in the nomination blank after being properly filled out you will at once become a candidate. You can win one of the very valuable prizes which will be given in a few short weeks. A little effort combined with perseverance and tact is all that is needed to win the prize. The paramount question now is to enter your name in the competition. Immediately upon receipt of the nomination blank bearing your name the necessary books and instructions will be sent you.

THE FIRST THING TO DO

Cut out the nomination blank which will be found in this page. Fill in the blank with your name, address, etc., if you wish to nominate yourself, or with the name and address of anyone you may wish to nominate. Be very careful to write plainly so that there may be no possibility of error being made. We also wish to impress upon candidates the importance of securing the correct name and address of all new subscribers so that there will be no unnecessary delay in starting the papers.

THE SECOND THING TO DO

Send or bring the nomination blank to The Standard office, Travel Club Department, and you will be credited with one thousand votes towards winning one of the big prizes and will be given a receipt book to be used in securing subscriptions to this paper. If you cannot call, phone or write and a representative will call and explain the plan of the "Travel Club" in detail and will render you every possible assistance. It is better to ask questions than to have to correct mistakes later.

Frenchwomen as Farmers. The appeal to British women to go to farm work at this time should be strongly reinforced by an account which has just been published of wonderful way in which Frenchwomen have filled men's places on the farms of the Manchester Guardian. Berkshire Committee on Women's Farm Labor had the happy thought that a depiction of British women to France might come back some stimulating story to tell. They made their visit when the Battle of Verdun began and most of the work they saw was being done by wives and mothers of men engaged.
