

UNITED STATES SAILOR MARRIED TO MANY GIRLS

Court Judgment Frees Two
Wives from Young "Gob"
Now Serving for Bigamy.

WED FOR THE FUN
HE WAS HAVING

Lad of Twenty Years Seemed to Have Mania for Going Through Marriage Ceremony

White Plains, N. Y., May 20.—The war time romance of Harold Hammond, a twenty year old naval apprentice, who it is alleged, married at least eleven young girls, came to an end today when Supreme Court Justice Martin J. Keogh, of New Rochelle, filed orders at White Plains granting an annulment and a divorce respectively to two of his wives.

According to the evidence taken before Justice Keogh, young Hammond is now serving time in the Portsmouth naval prison for bigamy.

One of the actions was brought by Mrs. Elizabeth Marie Hammond, of 233 West 87th street, Manhattan, who through her attorney James A. Turley, of Manhattan, sued Harold Hammond for a divorce. She was married to the young sailor on October 15, 1917. They have no children. She named Loretta F. Hammond, of Hollands, L. I., who married Hammond on May 16, 1919, at Hoboken, N. J. Loretta, sued Hammond for an annulment naming Elizabeth, and the two wives testified against each other in their respective lawsuits.

Married For Fun.
According to information given out by the attorney for Hammond, Julian V. Carabba, of 115 Broadway, Manhattan, who appeared for him when the papers were served, but did not put in an answer at the trial, young Hammond comes from a good family at Bath Beach. The young bigamist stated that he married so many young women simply because he was having a "lot of fun."

The evidence in the suit of Elizabeth shows that Hammond lived with another young girl at 110 Greenwich avenue, Manhattan, on July 15, 1919, at Midland Beach, with another unknown woman in August, 1919, and on Fourth street, Manhattan, 1919, and on 51st street from April to September, 1920, with other women.

Attached to the papers of Elizabeth Hammond is a photograph of a United States regular recruit, and written on the back are the words "My Husband, Harold Hammond."

Loretta F. Hammond, in her testimony, swore that she married Hammond at Hoboken, N. J., on May 16, 1919. She says he was in the navy then and that she lived with him at 110 Greenwich avenue, she has one child, Robert Hammond, whose custody is awarded to the mother.

Arrested For Bigamy.

Loretta had Hammond arrested for bigamy at Rockaway Beach, and he pleaded guilty in the domestic relations court in New Jersey, and was turned over to the naval authorities. Loretta called Elizabeth Marie Hammond as her chief witness to testify that she resided with Hammond on May 16 and July 16, 1919. Elizabeth Fitzhenry, stepmother of Loretta, testified that the plaintiff resided with her and that she served the summons and complaint on Hammond on May 21, 1920, at 2402 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. It is said that young Hammond married several young women at Newport News while he was stationed there as a naval reserve, and others at Bath Beach and South Philadelphia. It is claimed that Hammond, when he married Elizabeth was then a soldier absent without leave from Fort Ethan Allan, Vermont, and later joined the navy.

Hillsboro Masons Entertain Visitors

D. C. Clark, P. G. M., Delivered Fine Lecture—Methodist W. M. S. Elects Officers

Hillsboro, N. B., May 22.—At the annual business meeting of the W. M. S. of the Methodist Church held at the home of Mrs. Wm. H. Bennett, the reports were encouraging and showed the society had a good year. The following were elected to office for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. W. H. Bennett.
Vice Pres.—Mrs. Blight.
Treasurer—Mrs. J. P. Beatty.
Corresponding and Recording Secretary—Miss Lottie O'Shaughnessy.

On Monday evening Howard Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Hillsboro, entertained at a very enjoyable occasion. About 200 were present, including Masons and guests, assembled in the Scene Hall, where an interesting and instructive lecture was given by Grand Past Master D. C. Clark of St. John, assisted by Grand Secretary Mills of St. John. The slides were pictures taken while Mr. Clark was at London, England, attending the Masonic Peace Celebration in 1919. Mr. Clark visited Howard Lodge on a previous occasion three years ago. At the close of the lecture all repaired to the Masonic rooms, where a social hour was spent, speech-making, and refreshments served.

Loses $11,000 In A Whiskey Swindle

Philadelphia, May 20.—Lured there to purchase whiskey, Valenty Srsenpankerviz, 1127 Mount Ephraim street, Camden, a saloon-keeper, dropped $11,000 to three confidence men in Harrisburg, Pa. The Camden man has appealed to the police to get his money back.

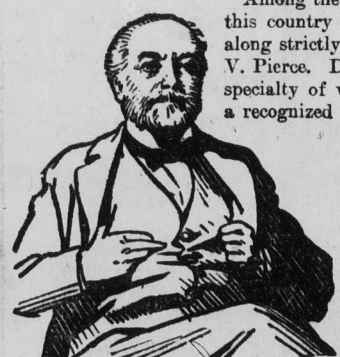

Srsenpankerviz was taken to High Spire and shown a distillery by the confidence men, who claimed they could sell him bonded whiskey. A supposed "government agent" met them at the distillery, but the man who sold the whiskey was not there. Then the strangers let the Camden man in on some good things while they waited there and showered several hundred dollars on him.

They promised to let him in on something real the next day if he would put up some money, so he went to Camden and got the $11,000. The man disappeared and never returned. The theft is said to have taken place April 20, but was not reported to the police until yesterday. The police said the distilling company knew nothing of the visit of the confidence men.

Conflicting Claims.

Chicago printers have decided to accept a decrease of $4.50 per week in exchange for a 44-hour week, yet up here in Canada there are at least two places in which printers are striking for the shorter week, with an increase of anything from $7 to $10 in pay in addition. Evidently the executive of the I. T. U. needs to reconcile some very conflicting claims.—Brantford Expositor.

A Successful Man

Among the notable professional men of this country who achieved great success along strictly legitimate lines was Dr. R. V. Pierce. Devoting his attention to the specialty of women's diseases, he became a recognized authority in that line. His work, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," is now in three million homes in this country and Europe. At one time Dr. Pierce represented his home district in Congress.

Fifty years ago last winter, this noted physician gave to the world a Prescription which has never been equalled for the weaknesses of women. Many women in every hamlet, town or city will gladly testify that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription did them a world of good.

Another of this great physician's successful remedies is known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and, like the "Prescription," is now sold by druggists everywhere, in both liquid and tablet form. The list of men and women all over the universe who have successfully used it for indigestion and as a blood tonic and system builder, makes an amazing total of thousands.

If you desire a cloth-bound copy of a new edition of the "Medical Adviser" by Dr. Pierce, send one dollar to the "Invalids' Hotel," Buffalo, N. Y. It is a book of 1000 pages of ready reference. For those not within easy reach of professional aid at critical times, and in cases of emergency or dangerous accidents, it is invaluable.

"Cheated Cheaters" Is Excuse For Fraud

Four Admit $100,000 Operation in Stocks They Call
"Phony."

New York, May 20.—The excuse that he was simply cheating cheaters was given today by Irving Lewis, stock salesman, when he was arraigned in general sessions with three others on charges of defrauding Wall street brokers by whom they were employed.

The defendants were alleged to have been members of a band of seventeen arrested last March after the brokers had complained that they had lost $100,000 through the band's operations.

According to the brokers, these salesmen would present customers whose notes turned out to be worthless, but on whose purchases large commissions had been paid.

Today Lewis pleaded guilty with his codefendants, adding:

"It is simply a case of the cheaters being cheated, for in many instances the stocks sold were 'phony,' many of them being oil stocks not worth the paper they were printed on."

Ball of all defendants was raised—in one case from $500 to $15,000. Sentence will not be imposed until disposal is made of the other thirteen cases.
