Wednesday afternoon an atrocious murler was perpetrated by a policeman in hand, New York, the murderer being intoxicated. It appears that John Doyle, an officer of the 15th precinct, has been keeping company with Miss Lawler of No. 83, South 5th avenue, for some time. He was insanely jealous, however, and getting drunk went to where she was employed, called her out into the hall, and deliberately shot and killed her. The ball entered the side of the head, and it is supposed lodged in the brain. The woman did not speak after the shot was fired. The murderer made no attempt
